PREAMBLE

This Agreement is entered into by the State of Washington, referred to as the "Employer," and the Washington Federation of State Employees, AFSCME, Council 28, AFL-CIO, referred to as the "Union." It is the intent of the parties to establish employment relations based on mutual respect, provide fair treatment to all employees, promote efficient and cost-effective service delivery to the customers and citizens of the State of Washington, improve the performance results of state government, recognize the value of employees and the work they perform, specify wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, and provide methods for prompt resolution of differences. The Preamble is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

ARTICLE 1

UNION RECOGNITION

- 1.1 This Agreement covers the employees in the bargaining units described in Appendix A, entitled "Bargaining Units Represented by the Washington Federation of State Employees," but it does not cover any statutorily excluded positions or any positions excluded in Appendix A. The titles of the jobs listed in Appendix A are listed for descriptive purposes only. This does not mean that the jobs will continue to exist or be filled.
- 1.2 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for all employees in bargaining units described in Appendix A and Section 1.3.
- 1.3 If the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) certifies the Union as the exclusive representative during the term of this Agreement for a bargaining unit in general government, the terms of this Agreement will apply.

ARTICLE 2

NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 2.1 Under this Agreement, neither party will discriminate against employees on the basis of religion, age, sex, marital status, race, color, creed, national origin, political affiliation, status as a disabled veteran or Vietnam era veteran, sexual orientation, any real or perceived sensory, mental or physical disability, or because of the participation or lack of participation in union activities. Bona fide occupational qualifications based on the above traits do not violate this Section.
- 2.2 Both parties agree that unlawful harassment will not be tolerated.
- 2.3 Employees who feel they have been the subjects of discrimination are encouraged to discuss such issues with their supervisor or other management staff, or file a complaint in accordance with agency policy. In cases where an employee files both a grievance and an internal complaint regarding the alleged discrimination, the grievance will be suspended until the internal complaint process has been completed.
- 2.4 Both parties agree that nothing in this Agreement will prevent the implementation of an approved affirmative action plan.

ARTICLE 3

BID SYSTEM

3.1 Applicability

- A. This Article applies only to staff employed at a correctional facility in the Departments of Corrections, or at an institution in the Department of Social and Health Services, or the Department of Veteran's Affairs, and who work in positions that may require relief or coverage. This Article also applies to employees at the Schools for the Blind and Deaf, Department of Fish and Wildlife, Department of General Administration who work in the Division of Capital Facilities, and the Board of Industrial Appeals Judges (Section 3.12 only).
- B. This Article does not apply to the filling of non-permanent, on-call, project or, except at the Schools for the Blind and Deaf, career seasonal positions.

3.2 Definitions

For purposes of this Article only, the following definitions apply:

- A. Bid Positions
Positions filled as a result of a bid.
- B. Bid System
A process allowing employees with permanent status to submit bids to other positions within their employing institution in the same job classification in which they currently hold permanent status or have previously held status.
- C. Position
A particular combination of shifts and days off, except for the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS). In DSHS, a position is defined as a particular combination of shift, days off and location.

3.3 Components of a Bid

Bids will indicate the employee's choice of shift, days off and job classification. Employees will be responsible for the accuracy of their bids. Each bid will remain active for a period of six (6) months from the date submitted by the employee.

3.4 Submittal and Withdrawal of Bids

Any bids submitted after the date a vacancy is considered to have occurred will not be considered for that vacancy. Employees may withdraw their bids, in writing, at any time prior to the referral.

3.5 New Positions or Reallocated Positions

When a new position is established or a current position is changed, the Employer will post the position for five (5) calendar days if the combination of shift and days off (and, for DSHS, location) does not currently exist.

3.6 Vacancy

For purposes of this Article, a vacancy occurs when:

- A. An employee notifies management, in writing, that he or she intends to vacate his or her position; or
- B. Management notifies an employee, in writing, that the employee will be removed from his or her position.

3.7 Awarding a Bid

When a permanent vacancy occurs, the Employer will determine if any employee has submitted a transfer or a voluntary demotion request for the shift and days off. Seniority will prevail provided the employee has the skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the position. An employee's bid request may be turned down if the employee has documented attendance or performance problems.

3.8 Commitment Following an Award or Refusal of a Bid

- A. For all agencies except DSHS, when an employee has been awarded a bid, or refuses an awarded bid, the employee will be prohibited from requesting other bids for a minimum of six (6) months. The six (6) month period will begin on the first day the employee is assigned the new shift and/or days off. All other active bids the employee has on file will be removed from the bid system.
- B. For DSHS, when an employee has been awarded a bid, the employee will be prohibited from requesting other bids for a minimum of twelve (12) months. If an employee refuses an awarded bid, the employee will be prohibited from requesting other bids for a minimum of six (6) months. The time period will begin on the first day the employee is assigned the new shift, days off and/or location. All other active bids the employee has on file will be removed from the bid system.

3.9 Whenever there is need for a major change in residential settings such as elimination of positions or major changes to shifts or assignments, the Union and the Employer may agree to suspend the procedure described in Sections 3.3 through 3.6 above and allow all employees to bid on positions, which will be filled in accordance with the procedures in Sections 3.7 and 3.8 of this Article.

3.10 Reassignment from a Bid Position

Nothing in this Article will preclude management from reassigning an employee from his or her bid position to another position on a different shift or to a position with different days off, provided the employee is notified, in writing, of the reason(s) for the reassignment.

3.11 Department of Fish and Wildlife – Enforcement Division

A. Openings will be posted via U.S. mail and department e-mail for a period of not less than twenty-one (21) calendar days. Eligible employees may bid on openings during the posting period. Employees with less than three (3) years' service in the Fish and Wildlife Officer 1 classification may bid only when it is deemed beneficial to the program by the Chief. Employees may submit a request for a hardship transfer to the Union at any time.

B. Hardship Transfers

For purposes of this Article, a hardship transfer is defined as a medical, or safety-threatening situation causing specific loss or suffering to an employee or the employee's spouse, children, parents, or spouse's parents. This provision includes stepchildren and stepparents. Employees who have a hardship may request a hardship transfer to a vacant or new position. Requests for hardship will be submitted to the Union. Those supported by the Union will be forwarded with a written record of support, including the original employee request and all supporting documentation, to the Chief for consideration. The Chief's decision on the request for a hardship transfer will be final and is not subject to the grievance procedure.

C. In accordance with Subsection A above, when a vacancy occurs or a new position is created, the Department will award the bid on the basis of total time served in the bargaining unit(s), except as provided in Subsection B above.

D. Employees who are awarded a bid will fill the position thirty (30) calendar days following the notification of selection. Officers will be paid per diem when in authorized travel status during this period.

E. Officers will have a ninety (90) calendar day period to establish a permanent residence after filling the bid for a new or vacant position. Officers must establish the permanent residence within the geographical area defined by the Department for the position appointed.

F. Permanent residence is defined as the place an officer physically lives or physically resides. The methods used to determine residency may include: mailing address, voter registration, utility and service bills, residence rental or ownership agreement, or telephone number.

3.12 Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals (BIIA) – Hearing Run Assignments

A. Geographical hearing run assignments will be made on the basis of time in service with the BIIA except where in the Employer's discretion other factors take precedence. Other factors include, but are not limited to, the desires of the employee, work performance, medical needs, and the needs of the agency.

- B. Geographical caseload hearing assignments, except for temporary assignments, will be made on an annual basis. The Employer will notify the judicial staff of the specific date of general geographic caseload hearing changes at least ninety (90) calendar days prior to the proposed change. The judicial staff has thirty (30) calendar days from notification to respond with their assignment preference(s). No later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the implementation date, the Employer will specify assignments.
- C. When a vacancy in a hearing position with its official work station in a regional or community based office is to be filled or if a new hearing run is established with its official work station in a regional or community based office, before outside candidates are considered, current Industrial Appeal Judges may request a transfer based on time in service with the BIIA.
- D. Annually in January, the Employer will provide to the judicial staff an agency time in service with the BIIA list.
- E. Nothing contained in this Article will diminish or alter the right of the Employer to reassign employees when such reassignments are in the best interest of the employee or the agency.

ARTICLE 4

HIRING AND APPOINTMENTS

4.1 Filling Positions

The Employer will determine when a position will be filled, the type of appointment to be used when filling the position, and the skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the specific position within a job classification. Only those candidates who have the position-specific skills and abilities required to perform the duties of the vacant position will be referred for further consideration by the employing agency.

- A. An agency's internal layoff list will consist of employees who have elected to place their name on the layoff list through Article 34, Layoff and Recall, of this Agreement and are confined to each individual agency.
- B. The statewide layoff list will consist of employees who have elected to place their name on the statewide layoff list in accordance with WAC 357-46-080.
- C. A promotional candidate is defined as an employee who has completed the probationary period within a permanent appointment and has attained permanent status within the agency.
- D. A transfer candidate is defined as an employee in permanent status in the same classification as the vacancy within the agency.

- E. A voluntary demotion candidate is defined as an employee in permanent status moving to a class in a lower salary range maximum within the agency.
- F. When filling a vacant position with a permanent appointment, candidates will be certified for further consideration in the following manner:
 - 1. The most senior candidate on the agency's internal layoff list with the required skills and abilities who has indicated an appropriate geographic availability will be appointed to the position.
 - 2. If there are no names on the internal layoff list, the agency will certify up to twenty (20) candidates for further consideration. Up to seventy-five percent (75%) of those candidates will be statewide layoff, agency promotional, internal transfers, and agency voluntary demotions. All candidates certified must have the position-specific skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position to be filled. If there is a tie for the last position on the certification for either promotional or other candidates, the agency may consider up to ten (10) additional tied candidates. The agency may supplement the certification with additional tied candidates and replace other candidates who waive consideration with like candidates from the original pool.
 - 3. Employees in the General Government Transition Pool Program who have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the vacant position may be considered along with all other candidates who have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position.
 - 4. If the certified candidate pool does not contain at least three (3) affirmative action candidates, the agency may add up to three (3) affirmative action candidates to the names certified for the position.
 - 5. When recruiting for multiple positions, the agency may add an additional five (5) agency candidates and five (5) other candidates to the certified list for each additional position.

4.2 Permanent Status

An employee will attain permanent status in a job classification upon his or her successful completion of a probationary, trial service or transition review period.

4.3 Types of Appointment

A. Non-Permanent

- 1. The Employer may make non-permanent appointments to fill in for the absence of a permanent employee, during a workload peak, while recruitment is being conducted, or to reduce the possible effects of a layoff. Non-permanent appointments will not exceed twelve (12) months except when filling in for the absence of a permanent employee. A non-permanent appointee must have the skills and abilities required for the position.

2. A permanent employee who accepts a non-permanent appointment within his or her agency will have the right to return to a position in the permanent classification he or she left at the completion of the non-permanent appointment; provided, that the employee has not left the original non-permanent appointment. An employee with permanent status may accept a non-permanent appointment to another agency. At least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to accepting the appointment, the employee must notify his or her current appointing authority of the intent to accept a non-permanent appointment. Upon notification of the employee's intent, the employee's permanent agency will notify the employee, in writing, of any return rights to the agency and the duration of those return rights. At a minimum, the agency must provide the employee access to the agency's internal layoff list.
3. The Employer may convert a non-permanent appointment into a permanent appointment and the employee will serve a probationary or trial service period. The Employer must follow Article 3, Bid System, or appoint an internal layoff candidate, if one exists, before converting an employee from a non-permanent appointment to a permanent appointment.
4. The Employer may end a non-permanent appointment at any time by giving one (1) working day's notice to the employee.

B. On-Call Employment

The Employer may fill a position with an on-call appointment where the work is intermittent in nature, is sporadic and it does not fit a particular pattern. The Employer may end on-call employment at any time by giving one (1) working day's notice to the employee.

C. In-Training Employment

1. The Employer may designate specific positions, groups of positions, or all positions in a job classification or series as in-training. The Employer will document the training program, including a description and length of the program. Unless other staffing methods have been exhausted, positions with primary responsibility for supervision will not be designated as in-training positions.
2. A candidate who is initially hired into an in-training position must successfully complete the job requirements of the appointment. The Employer may separate from state service, any employee who has completed the probationary period for an in-training appointment but does not successfully complete the subsequent trial service period(s) required by the in-training program. Employees who are not successful may be separated at any time with one (1) working day's notice from the Employer.

3. An employee with permanent status who accepts an in-training appointment will serve a trial service period(s), depending on the requirements of the in-training program. The Employer may revert an employee who does not successfully complete the trial service period(s) at any time with one (1) working day's notice. The employee's reversion right will be to the job classification that the employee held permanent status in prior to his or her in-training appointment, in accordance with Subsections 4.4 B.3 and 4.4 B.4 of this Article.
4. A trial service period may be required for each level of the in-training appointment, or the entire in-training appointment may be designated as the trial service period. The Employer will determine the length of the trial service period(s) to be served by an employee in an in-training appointment, however the cumulative total of the trial service periods for the entire in-training appointment will not exceed twenty-four (24) months.
5. If a trial service period is required for each level of the in-training appointment, the employee will attain permanent status in each classification upon successful completion of the training program at each level.
6. If the entire in-training program—meaning all levels within the in-training appointment—is designated as a trial service period, the employee will attain permanent status in the goal classification upon successful completion of the training requirements for the entire in-training program.

D. Project Employment

1. The Employer may appoint employees into project positions for which employment is contingent upon state, federal, local, grant, or other special funding of specific and of time-limited duration. The Employer will notify the employees, in writing, of the expected ending date of the project employment.
2. Employees who have entered into project employment without previously attaining permanent status will serve a probationary period. Employees will gain permanent project status upon successful completion of their probationary period.

Employees with permanent project status will serve a trial service period when they:

- a. Promote to another job classification within the project; or

- b. Transfer or voluntarily demote within the project to another job classification in which they have not attained permanent status.
- 3. The Employer may consider project employees with permanent project status for transfer, voluntary demotion, or promotion to non-project positions. Employees will serve a trial service period upon transfer, voluntary demotion, or promotion to a non-project position in a job classification that the employees have not previously attained permanent status in.
- 4. When the Employer converts a project appointment into a permanent appointment, the employee will serve a probationary or trial service period.
- 5. The layoff and recall rights of project employees will be in accordance with the provisions in Article 34, Layoff and Recall.
- E. Seasonal Career /Cyclic Employment
 - 1. The Employer may make seasonal career appointments that are cyclical in nature, recur at the same agency at approximately the same time each year, and last for a minimum of five (5) months but are less than twelve (12) months in duration during any consecutive twelve (12) month period.
 - 2. Upon completion of a six (6) or twelve (12) month probationary period (in accordance with Subsection 4.4 A below) completed in consecutive seasons at the same agency, employees in seasonal career employment will assume the rights of employees with permanent status.
 - 3. The layoff and recall rights of seasonal career employees will be in accordance with the provisions in Article 34, Layoff and Recall.
- F. The designation of a position as non-permanent, on-call, in-training or project, or the termination of a non-permanent, on-call, in-training or project appointment is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

4.4 Review Periods

A. Probationary Period

- 1. Every part-time and full-time employee, following his or her initial appointment to a permanent position, will serve a probationary period of six (6) consecutive months; except that employees in any class for which the probationary period was twelve (12) months on July 1, 2005 will continue to serve a twelve (12) month probationary period. Agencies may extend the probationary period for an individual employee as long as the extension does not cause the total period to exceed twelve (12) months.

2. The Employer may separate a probationary employee at any time during the probationary period. The Employer will provide the employee five (5) working days' written notice prior to the effective date of the separation. However, if the Employer fails to provide five (5) working days' notice, the separation will stand and the employee will be entitled to payment of salary for up to five (5) working days, which the employee would have worked had notice been given. Under no circumstances will notice deficiencies result in an employee gaining permanent status. The separation of an employee will not be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.
3. The Employer will extend an employee's probationary period, on a day-for-a-day basis, for any day(s) that the employee is on leave without pay or shared leave, except for leave taken for military service.
4. An employee who transfers or is promoted prior to completing his or her initial probationary period will serve a new probationary period. The length of the new probationary period will be in accordance with Subsection 4.4 A, unless adjusted by the appointing authority for time already served in probationary status. In no case, however, will the total probationary period be less than six (6) consecutive months.
5. If the Employer converts the status of a non-permanent appointment to a permanent appointment, the incumbent employee will serve a probationary period. However, the Employer may credit time worked in the non-permanent appointment toward completion of the probationary period as defined in Subsection 4.4 A.

B. Trial Service Period

1. Except for those employees in an in-training appointment, all other employees with permanent status who are promoted, or who voluntarily accept a transfer or demotion into a job classification for which they have not previously attained permanent status, will serve a trial service period of six (6) consecutive months. Agencies may extend the trial service period for an individual employee as long as the extension does not cause the total period to exceed twelve (12) months.
2. Any employee serving a trial service period will have his or her trial service period extended, on a day-for-a-day basis, for any day(s) that the employee is on leave without pay or shared leave, except for leave taken for military service.
3. An employee serving a trial service period may voluntarily revert to his or her former position within fifteen (15) days of the appointment, provided that the position has not been filled or an offer has not been made to an applicant. An employee serving a trial service period may voluntarily revert at any time to a funded permanent position in the same agency that is:

- a. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee and is within the employee's previously held job classification.
- b. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee at or below the employee's previous salary range.

The reversion option, if any, will be determined by the Employer using the order listed above. In both (a) and (b) above, the Employer will determine the position the employee may revert to and the employee must have the skills and abilities required for the position. If possible, the reversion option will be within a reasonable commuting distance for the employee.

4. With five (5) working days' written notice by the Employer, an employee who does not satisfactorily complete his or her trial service period will be reverted to a funded permanent position in the same agency, that is:
 - a. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee and is within the employee's previously held job classification.
 - b. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee at or below the employee's previous salary range.

The reversion option, if any, will be determined by the Employer using the order listed above. In both (a) and (b) above, the employee being reverted must have the skills and abilities required for the vacant position. If possible, the reversion option will be within a reasonable commuting distance for the employee.

If the Employer fails to provide five (5) working days' notice, the reversion will stand and the employee will be entitled to payment of the difference in the salary for up to five (5) working days, which the employee would have worked at the higher level if notice had been given. Under no circumstances will notice deficiencies result in an employee gaining permanent status in the higher classification.

5. An employee who has no reversion options or does not revert to the highest classification in which he or she previously attained permanent status may request that his or her name be placed on the agency's internal layoff list and into the General Government Transition Pool Program for positions in job classifications where he or she had previously attained permanent status.
6. An employee who is separated during his or her trial service period may request a review of the separation by the Director or Secretary of the agency or designee within twenty-one (21) calendar days from the effective date of the separation. The reversion of employees who are unsuccessful during their trial service period is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

5.1 Objective

The Employer will evaluate employee work performance. The performance evaluation process will include performance goals and expectations that reflect the organization's objectives.

The performance evaluation process gives supervisors an opportunity to discuss performance goals and expectations with their employees, assess and review their performance with regard to those goals and expectations, and provide support to employees in their professional development, so that skills and abilities can be aligned with agency requirements.

To recognize employee accomplishments and address performance issues in a timely manner, discussions between the employee and the supervisor will occur throughout the evaluation period. Performance problems will be brought to the attention of the employee to give the employee the opportunity to receive any needed additional training and to correct the problem before it is mentioned in an evaluation.

5.2 Evaluation Process

- A. Employee work performance will be evaluated during probationary and trial service periods and at least annually thereafter. Immediate supervisors will meet with employees to discuss performance goals and expectations. Employees will receive copies of their performance goals and expectations as well as notification of any modifications made during the review period.
- B. The supervisor will discuss the evaluation with the employee. The employee will have the opportunity to provide feedback on the evaluation. The discussion may include such topics as:
 - 1. Reviewing the employee's performance;
 - 2. Identifying ways the employee may improve his or her performance;
 - 3. Updating the employee's position description, if necessary;
 - 4. Identifying performance goals and expectations for the next appraisal period; and
 - 5. Identifying employee training and development needs.
- C. The performance evaluation process will include, but not be limited to, a written performance evaluation on forms used by the Employer, the employee's signature acknowledging receipt of the forms, and any comments by the employee. A copy of the performance evaluation will be provided to the employee at the time of the review. The original performance evaluation forms, including the employee's comments, will be maintained in the employee's personnel file.

- D. The evaluation process is subject to the grievance procedure. The specific content of performance evaluations are not subject to the grievance procedure.

Workweeks will normally begin at 12:00 a.m. on Sunday and end at 12:00 midnight the following Saturday or as otherwise designated by the appointing authority. If there is a change in their workweek, employees will be given prior written notification by the appointing authority.

6.2 Determination

Per federal and state law, the Employer will determine whether a position is overtime-eligible or overtime-exempt. In addition, the Employer will determine if an overtime-eligible position is a law-enforcement position, with or without an extended work period, or a shift position.

6.3 Overtime-Eligible Employees (Excluding Law Enforcement Employees)

A. Regular Work Schedules

The regular work schedule for overtime-eligible employees will not be more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, with starting and ending times as determined by the requirements of the position and the Employer. The regular work schedule will normally include two (2) consecutive scheduled days off. The Employer may adjust the regular work schedule with prior written notice to the employee.

B. Alternate Work Schedules

Workweeks and work shifts of different numbers of hours may be established for overtime-eligible employees by the Employer in order to meet business and customer service needs, as long as the alternate work schedules meet federal and state laws. less. Overtime-eligible shift employees will receive three (3) calendar days' written notice of any temporary schedule change. The day that notification is given is considered the first day of notice. Adjustments in the hours of work of daily work shifts during a workweek do not constitute a temporary schedule change.

E. Permanent Schedule Changes

Overtime-eligible employees' workweeks and work schedules may be permanently changed with prior notice from the Employer. Overtime-eligible shift employees will receive seven (7) calendar days' written notice of a permanent schedule change. The day notification is given is considered the first day of notice. Adjustments in the hours of work of daily work shifts during a workweek do not constitute a permanent schedule change.

F. Emergency Schedule Changes

The Employer may adjust an overtime-eligible employee's workweek and work schedule without prior notice in emergencies, for highway snow, ice or avalanche removal, fire duty, grain inspection, or extraordinary unforeseen operational needs.

G. Employee-Requested Schedule Changes

Overtime-eligible employees' workweeks and work schedules may be changed at the employee's request and with the Employer's approval, provided the Employer's business and customer service needs are met and no overtime expense is incurred.

6.4 Overtime-Eligible Law Enforcement Employee Work Schedules

The regular work schedule for full-time overtime-eligible law enforcement employees, not receiving assignment pay for an extended work period, will not be more than one hundred and sixty (160) hours in a twenty-eight (28) day period. The regular work schedule for full-time overtime-eligible law enforcement employees receiving assignment pay for an extended work period will not be more than one hundred and seventy-one (171) hours in a twenty-eight (28) day period. The Employer may adjust the work schedule with prior notice to the employee.

6.5 Overtime-Eligible Unpaid Meal Periods

The Employer and the Union agree to unpaid meal periods that vary from and supersede the unpaid meal period requirements of WAC 296-126-092. Unpaid meal periods for employees working more than five (5) consecutive hours, if entitled, will be a minimum of thirty (30) minutes and will be scheduled as close to the middle of the work shift as possible. Employees working three (3) or more hours longer than a normal workday will be allowed an additional thirty (30) minute unpaid meal period. When an employee's unpaid meal period is interrupted by work duties, the employee will be allowed to resume his or her unpaid meal period following the interruption, if possible, to complete the unpaid meal period. In the event an employee is unable to complete the unpaid meal period due to operational necessity, the employee will be entitled to compensation, which will be computed based on the actual number of minutes worked within the unpaid meal period. Meal periods may not be used for late arrival or early departure from work and meal and rest periods will not be combined.

6.6 Overtime-Eligible Paid Meal Periods for Straight Shift Schedules

The Employer and the Union agree to paid meal periods that vary from and supersede the paid meal period requirements of WAC 296-126-092. Employees will be allowed rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes for each one half (1/2) shift of four (4) or more hours worked at or near the middle of each one half (1/2) shift of four (4) or more hours. Rest periods do not require relief from duty. Where the nature of the work allows employees to take intermittent rest periods equivalent to fifteen (15) minutes for each half shift, scheduled rest periods are not required. Rest periods may not be used for late arrival or early departure from work and rest and meal periods will not be combined.

6.8 Overtime-Exempt Employees

Overtime-exempt employees are not covered by federal or state overtime laws. Compensation is based on the premise that overtime-exempt employees are expected to work as many hours as necessary to provide the public services for which they were hired. These employees are accountable for their work product, and for meeting the objectives of the agency for which they work. The Employer's policy for all overtime-exempt employees is as follows:

- A. The Employer determines the products, services, and standards that must be met by overtime-exempt employees.
- B. Overtime-exempt employees are expected to work as many hours as necessary to accomplish their assignments or fulfill their responsibilities and must respond to directions from management to complete work assignments by specific deadlines. Overtime-exempt employees may be required to work specific hours to provide services, when deemed necessary by the Employer.
- C. The salary paid to overtime-exempt employees is full compensation for all hours worked.

- D. Appointing authorities may approve overtime-exempt employees' accrual of exchange time for extraordinary and excessive hours worked. Exchange time may be accrued at straight time to a maximum of eighty (80) hours. Exchange time has no cash value and cannot be transferred between agencies.
- E. If they give notification and receive the Employer's concurrence, overtime-exempt employees may alter their work hours. Employees are responsible for keeping management apprised of their schedules and their whereabouts.
- F. Prior approval from the Employer for the use of paid or unpaid leave for absences of two (2) or more hours is required, except for unanticipated sick leave.

6.9 Military Department – Emergency Management Division

The Employer may send an employee home to rest prior to returning for the night shift to cover an emergency or declared disaster. When this occurs, the rest period will be considered time worked through the end of the employee's scheduled work shift.

6.10 Department of Transportation – Maintenance Bargaining Unit
Winter Shift and Contingency Schedules

The Employer will establish yearly winter shift and contingency schedules as needed. Within reasonable staff and program considerations, the Employer will accommodate employee shift preference based on Department of Transportation continuous service. It is recognized that in assigning shifts and days off a balance of experience, skills and abilities may be required.

6.11 Department of Fish and Wildlife – Enforcement Division

A. Planning Meeting

Bargaining unit members will attend and participate in a twenty-eight (28) day detachment or unit planning meeting scheduled by the supervisor. The detachment or unit will identify and prioritize detachment or unit work to determine methods, times, locations, and days off. Based on program needs, each supervisor has the authority to make final decisions necessary to plan and schedule the time, place and methods of the work to be performed by employees of his or her detachment or unit; however, supervisors will attempt to meet officers' personal needs. The result of the meeting will be a twenty-eight (28) day detachment or unit plan that will be forwarded to the Captain for final approval. The approved plan will be forwarded to regional staff and the appropriate emergency communication center(s).

B. Days Off

Officers will request days off as Preferred Days Off (PDO) or as Regular Days Off (RDO) at the planning meeting. Supervisors may deny requests for days off to provide for and schedule patrol priorities. When the supervisor has approved requests for PDOs, they may be cancelled by the supervisor within seventy-two (72) hours' notice without incurring callback pay. If a PDO is cancelled with less than seventy-two (72) hours' notice, the Department will compensate the officer in accordance with Section 42.17 of Article 42, Compensation. Additional hours worked on a cancelled PDO will be compensated at the regular rate of salary and will be part of the normal one hundred seventy-one (171) hour work period. Officers wishing to change a PDO must also provide seventy-two (72) hours' notice to their supervisor. Approvals with shorter notice may be granted by mutual agreement between the supervisor and the officer. Cancellation of a RDO by the supervisor will not result in callback compensation. Officers that wish to adjust RDOs may request those changes in advance from their supervisor. Officers will normally work at least two (2) weekends each work period. Non-weekend days off will be consecutive unless otherwise selected by the officer. Officers who do not participate in the planning process may have their days off unilaterally set by their supervisor.

C. Holidays and Weekends

In the event a bargaining unit member is assigned to work the weekend prior to a recognized holiday, as defined by this Agreement, he or she will have the option of working the holiday. Bargaining unit members will not be required to work weekend days associated with a recognized holiday that falls on a Monday or Friday without being assigned to work the holiday.

6.12 Department of Fish and Wildlife – Construction and Maintenance

Normal commute time for employees residing at temporary residences and traveling to temporary work sites, will be thirty (30) minutes. Commute time over thirty (30) minutes will be considered to be work time. This work time will be taken from the end of the work shift to travel back to the temporary residence. Employees are on work time when they begin the mandatory pre-trip safety checks on vehicles requiring the use of a Commercial Driver's License (CDL). This does not apply to department pickups and other vehicles used for transportation to and from work sites.

6.13 Department of Fish and Wildlife – Hatcheries Division

- A. Paging devices may be provided by the Employer for the purpose of providing flexibility to employees required to perform standby assignments. Any bargaining unit employee who uses a pager or other form of communication device in order that they may return to work will receive standby compensation as defined in Article 42, Compensation, for the entire time they are required to perform standby. Bargaining unit employees using these communication devices are responsible for maintaining the level of response time necessary to protect the resource entrusted to them.
- B. No employee will be involuntarily assigned standby on his or her regular day(s) off, holiday(s) (except those holidays the employee is scheduled to work) or on days he or she is in leave status, unless an emergency situation dictates otherwise. A requirement for an employee to return to standby duty on a scheduled day off will require the employee to conduct a facility inspection (check water flow alarms, secure building(s), etc.) and, therefore, constitutes callback status.

- C. Employees assigned to standby status may be relieved for any portion of the assignment for which they are able to find a replacement. The employee initiating the change in assignment will document the change in writing to the appropriate supervisor. The person providing relief is responsible for meeting all standby obligations.
- D. All alarms other than that of the employee on standby duty will be turned off unless the Specialist 4, with the appropriate complex manager's approval, directs an employee to leave his or her electronic alarm on. The requirement to turn on the electronic alarm device will constitute assigned standby.

6.14 Department of Agriculture – Grain Inspection Program

To provide inspection and weighing services for grain being loaded onto export vessels, the Employer may establish and staff both emergency and overtime shifts using key position staffing, with a minimum of three (3) permanent employees licensed to perform key duties, any combination of inspectors, protein operators, and grain sampler-weighers. The remaining positions on such shifts may be staffed with non-permanent employees.

B. Maximum Compensatory Time

Employees may accumulate no more than one hundred and twenty (120) hours of compensatory time.

D. Compensatory Time Cash Out

All compensatory time must be used by June 30th of each year. If compensatory time balances are not scheduled to be used by the employee by April of each year, the supervisor will contact the employee to review his or her schedule. The employee's compensatory time balance will be cashed out every June 30th or when the employee:

1. Leaves state service for any reason,
2. Transfers to a position in his or her agency with different funding sources, or
3. Transfers to another state agency.

7.6 Department of Fish and Wildlife – Enforcement Division

In the event of a bona fide emergency and when a supervisor is unavailable to grant approval, a bargaining unit member may exercise discretion in determining the need to incur overtime. Not later than the next working day the bargaining unit member will report to his or her supervisor the nature of the bona fide emergency justifying the overtime. All other overtime must be pre-approved by the supervisor.

A bona fide emergency includes a life-threatening situation, civil disorder, natural disaster, sudden unexpected happening, unforeseen occurrence or condition, complication of circumstances, sudden or unexpected occasion for action, or pressing necessity.

However, for shift extensions in offices with multiple sites, employees having the lowest amount of overtime hours at any other site(s) serviced by that grain inspection office will be offered the opportunity to work the extension if they can complete their regular shift and travel to the extending site by the time the extension begins. Time traveled outside of scheduled shifts will not be paid time. If there still is not enough staff, employees on site may be required to work. Employees with less than forty (40) hours accumulated overtime in a month at the start of the shift may be required to work and will complete the shift or extension. Employees will finish any assignments for which they volunteer.

Shift extensions do not count as an overtime opportunity.

- C. The parties recognize and agree that in cases of operational necessity, public safety, and/or efficient delivery of public services, that it may be necessary for the Employer to deviate from the straight rotation process.
- D. In the event the Employer deviates from the straight rotation process, the Employer will explain to affected employees the reason for the deviation. The Employer will also take necessary actions to correct missed opportunities by skipping in the next rotation those employees who were called out-of-sequence.
- E. Bargaining unit supervisors and/or designees, making or receiving work-related calls at home, will be compensated for a minimum of one-half (1/2) hour for the time worked. Callback is not authorized for this work.

 - B. The Union will present the training to current union stewards within each bargaining unit. The training will last no longer than four (4) hours. The training will be considered time worked for those union stewards who attend the training during their scheduled work shift. Union stewards who attend the training during their non-work hours will not be compensated. The parties will agree on the date, time, number and names of stewards attending each session.

8.4 New Employee Orientation

When an agency provides a formal new employee orientation program for new employees, the Union will be given an opportunity to have a union steward or staff representative speak to the class for not more than thirty (30) minutes to provide information about the Union and the master agreement.

8.5 Tuition Reimbursement

- A. Agencies may approve full or partial tuition reimbursement, consistent with agency policy and within available resources.
- B. Agencies will reimburse eligible employees who provide proof of satisfactory completion of a course that was previously approved for tuition reimbursement.
- C. Agency funds expended for tuition reimbursement will be limited to tuition or registration fees, and will not include textbooks, supplies or other school expenses, except in accordance with agency policy.
- D. Absent an agreement to the contrary, when an employee moves to another agency prior to completion of an approved course, the approving agency will retain the obligation for reimbursement if the course is satisfactorily completed. When payment is not made by the approving agency the gaining agency may, at its option, reimburse the employee.

8.6 Education and Training Requests

All education and training requests will be approved or disapproved within thirty (30) calendar days from the submission of a properly completed request.

8.7 Apprenticeship Programs

The Employer will continue the existing apprenticeship programs.

8.8 Department of Social and Health Services – Physicians Bargaining Unit Only

Upon the request of a physician, Department of Social and Health Services will grant up to five (5) working days per year for attendance at continuing education courses necessary for the maintenance of a license that is directly relevant to patient care at Eastern State Hospital and Western State Hospital. A request will normally be made at least one (1) month in advance of the date of the course. If the Department of Social and Health Services determines that the absence of the physician is detrimental to patient care within the hospital, the request can be denied.

8.9 Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals – Judicial Bargaining Unit Only

- A. The Board will pay for at least fifteen (15) continuing education credit hours per judge per calendar year. In the event any judge accumulates thirty (30) or more Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits in a calendar year paid for by the Board, the excess credits will be used to satisfy the following year's requirements. Newly hired judges will be provided continuing legal education on a prorated basis during the calendar year of their hire.

- B. The Employer has a legitimate interest in all members of the judicial staff bargaining unit remaining current in their legal knowledge and training. To that end, for members of the judicial staff bargaining unit who have chosen to become judicial members of the Washington State Bar Association (WSBA), Subsection A above will also apply. Judges who receive CLE credits for courses or activities other than those CLE opportunities paid for by the Employer may have those credits applied to the fifteen (15) CLE per year requirement.

- C. Extended CLEs and Training

This Subsection is predicated upon the agency having adequate funding for extended CLEs, there being no restriction on out-of-state travel, and the National Judicial College (NJC) and International Association of Industrial Accidents, Boards, and Commissions (IAIABC) Workers' Compensation College remaining valuable training resources. The agency's goal is to provide extended CLEs to as many as eight (8) judges per year. This number may vary based on budget and/or workload considerations.

- 1. Training Committee

A training committee, consisting of equal numbers of management and judicial staff will make recommendations to the BIIA on proposed expenditures for judicial staff training. The committee will have the authority to develop in-house training and make recommendations regarding in-state CLE seminars.

- 2. Notification

In October of each calendar year, management will submit an offer, in writing, to each member of the Bargaining Unit who has been selected to attend NJC or the IAIABC Workers' Compensation College for the upcoming calendar year.

- 3. Selection Factors

For purposes of selection, the judges will be placed into Group A and Group B. Group A will consist of the judges who have been employed at the agency more than three (3) years as of the beginning of the fiscal year. Group B will consist of judges who have been employed with the agency less than three (3) years as of the beginning of the fiscal year.

Members of Group B are guaranteed to be offered at least one (1) extended CLE training opportunity during the first three (3) years of employment with the BIIA, subject to the availability of funding, statewide policies and directives regarding out-of-state training and travel and Subsection 8.9 C.4 of this Article.

Once a judge in Group B participates in an extended CLE training opportunity, that judge will be part of Group A for future selections. A Group B judge who does not receive a training opportunity within the first three (3) years of the judge's employment with the Board will remain a member of Group B until the judge receives a training opportunity.

4. Other Considerations

The Employer has the authority to determine that a judge should not attend training due to workload, work performance or other concerns as determined by the Employer. If the Employer determines that an otherwise eligible judge should not attend, it must inform the judge of that determination. If requested by the judge, the supervisor will within ten (10) calendar days provide to the judge a written explanation of the basis for the determination. Judges who either waive selection or are determined to be ineligible due to workload or work performance concerns will retain their eligibility in succeeding years based upon this Agreement.

5. Eligibility

A judge is eligible for selection if he or she has not attended the NJC or IAIABC College within the last five (5) years. All eligible judges will be considered in order of their time in service with the BIIA ranking in either Group A or Group B.

6. Acceptance or Waiver

A selected judge will have thirty (30) calendar days to notify his or her supervisor of an acceptance or waiver of the offer. Failure to notify the supervisor of acceptance within thirty (30) calendar days of receiving the offer will constitute a waiver. A waiver, either in writing or otherwise, by a judge, will constitute a waiver for that calendar year only. If the initial offerees waive, then the Employer will have the discretion to determine the time within which all subsequent offerees must respond or be deemed to have waived.

7. Employer Discretion

The Employer may limit the total number of judges attending any specific course. The Employer may decline to authorize attendance at any specific course if the Employer determines that the subject matter of the course is not appropriate for judicial staff training purposes.

8. Additional Training

The Employer will have the authority to identify specific extended training that would be pertinent to a particular judge or judges, and will have the authority to offer such training to that judge or judges.

8.10 Department of Fish & Wildlife – Hatcheries Division

The opportunity to attend the annual Pacific Northwest Fish Culture Conference will be provided to Fish Hatchery Specialists on an equal basis. Priority consideration will be given to those employees who have not attended the conference or have personally paid to attend within the past three (3) years.

ARTICLE 9

- 9.1 The Employer and the Union recognize the necessity for bargaining unit employees to maintain appropriate licensure and/or certification to perform the duties of their assigned position.
- 9.2 Agencies will continue their current practices related to licensure and certification.
- 9.3 Employees will notify their appointing authority or designee if their work-related license and/or certification has expired, or has been restricted, revoked or suspended within twenty-four (24) hours of expiration, restriction, revocation or suspension, or prior to their next scheduled shift, whichever occurs first.

ARTICLE 10

10.2 Holiday Rules

The following rules apply to all holidays except the personal holiday:

- A. Employees will be paid at a straight-time rate even though they do not work.

- B. In addition to Subsection A above, employees will be paid for the hours actually worked on a holiday at the overtime rate, in accordance with Article 7, Overtime.
- C. For full-time employees with a Monday-through-Friday work schedule:
 - 1. When a holiday falls on a Saturday, the Friday before will be the holiday.
 - 2. When a holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday will be the holiday.
- D. For full-time employees who do not have a Monday-through-Friday work schedule:
 - 1. When a holiday falls on the employee's scheduled workday, that day will be considered the holiday.
 - 2. When a holiday falls on the employee's scheduled day off, the agency will treat the employee's workday before or after as the holiday.
- E. The holiday for night shift employees whose work schedule begins on one (1) calendar day and ends on the next will be determined by the agency. It will start either at:
 - 1. The beginning of the scheduled night shift that begins on the calendar holiday, or
 - 2. The beginning of the shift that precedes the calendar holiday.

The decision will be the same for all employees in a facility unless there is agreement to do otherwise between the agency and one (1) or more affected employees, or with the Union, which will constitute agreement of the employees.
- F. Part-time employees who were employed before and after the holiday and for a period of at least twelve (12) calendar days during the month (but not including the holiday) will be compensated in cash or compensatory time for the holiday in an amount proportionate to the time in pay status during the month to that required for full-time employment.
- G. A full-time employee who otherwise would be entitled to a holiday but is on leave without pay will receive compensation for the holiday, provided he or she has been in pay status for eighty (80) non-overtime or non-standby hours during the month, not counting the holiday. Compensation for holidays for other than full-time employees during leave without pay will be proportionate to the time in pay status required for full-time employment. The employee must be employed before and after the holiday and for a period of at least twelve (12) calendar days during the month in addition to the holiday.

10.3 Personal Holidays

An employee may select one (1) workday as a personal holiday during the calendar year if the employee has been or is scheduled to be continuously employed by the state for more than four (4) months.

- A. An employee who is scheduled to work less than six (6) continuous months over a period covering two (2) calendar years will receive only one (1) personal holiday during this period.
- B. The Employer will release the employee from work on the day selected as the personal holiday, provided:
 - 1. The employee has given at least fourteen (14) calendar days' written notice to the supervisor. However, the employee and supervisor may agree upon an earlier date, and
 - 2. The number of employees selecting a particular day off does not prevent the agency from providing continued public service.
- C. Personal holidays must be taken during the calendar year or the entitlement to the day will lapse, except that the entitlement will carry over to the following year when an otherwise qualified employee has requested a personal holiday and the request has been denied.
- D. Agencies may establish qualifying policies for determining which of the requests for a particular date will or will not be granted when the number of requests for a personal holiday would impair operational necessity.
- E. Part-time employees who are employed during the month in which the personal holiday is taken will be compensated for the personal holiday in an amount proportionate to the time in pay status during the month to that required for full-time employment.
- F. A personal holiday for full-time employees will be equivalent to their work shift on the day selected for personal holiday absence.
- G. Part or all of a personal holiday may be donated as shared leave, in accordance with Article 14, Shared Leave. Any portion of a personal holiday that remains or is returned to the employee, will be taken in one (1) absence, not to exceed the work shift on the day of the absence, subject to the request and approval as described in Subsections B, C, and D above.

- H. Upon request, an employee will be approved to use part or all of his or her personal holiday for the care of family members as required by the Family Care Act, WAC 296-130. Any portion of a personal holiday that remains will be taken by the employee in one (1) absence, not to exceed the work shift on the day of the absence, subject to request and approval as described in Subsections B, C, and D above.

- 11.2 Vacation Leave Credits
After six (6) months of continuous state employment, full-time and part-time employees will be credited with the vacation leave they accrued during the previous six (6) months, according to the rate schedule and vacation leave accrual below. Thereafter, full-time and part-time employees will be credited with vacation leave accrued monthly, according to the rate schedule and vacation leave accrual below.
- 11.3 Vacation Leave Accrual
Full-time employees will accrue vacation leave according to the rate schedule below under the following conditions:
- A. The employee must be employed for fifteen (15) calendar days or more during the month.
 - B. Any leave without pay taken during the month will not be counted toward the fifteen (15) calendar days or more during the month.
 - C. Holidays for which the employee is otherwise eligible that fall within the qualifying fifteen (15) days count toward the minimum requirement.
 - D. Vacation leave accrual for other than full-time employees will be computed and accrued in an amount proportionate to the time the employee is in pay status during the month to that required for full-time employment.

11.4 Vacation Leave Accrual Rate Schedule

11.5 Vacation Scheduling for 24/7 Operations (Including the Schools for the Deaf and Blind)

- A. Employees who work in operations that are twenty-four (24) hours, seven (7) days a week, may submit in writing to their supervisor their preferences for different segments of vacation for the period March 1st of the current year through the end of February of the next year. The Employer will compile and post a vacation leave schedule. Employees on this schedule will have priority and will be granted vacation leave at the times specified, if possible.
- B. In the event that two (2) or more employees request the same vacation period and the supervisor must limit the number of people who may take vacation leave at one time due to business needs and work requirements, preference will be determined by seniority for up to three (3) segments of vacation. A “segment” is three (3) or more contiguous days of vacation leave.
- C. In addition to vacation leave approved in Subsection B above, employees may request vacation leave at any time on a first come, first served basis. Approval of supplemental requests will take into consideration the annual vacation leave schedule, which will take precedence, as well as operational needs.

11.6 Vacation Scheduling for All Employees

- A. Vacation leave will be charged in one-tenth (1/10th) of an hour increments.

- B. When considering requests for vacation leave, the Employer will take into account the desires of the employee but may require that leave be taken at a time convenient to the employing office or department.
- C. Vacation leave for religious observances may be granted to the extent agency or program requirements permit.
- D. Employees will not request or be authorized to take scheduled vacation leave if they do not have sufficient vacation leave credits to cover the absence.

11.7 Family Care

Employees may use vacation leave for care of family members as required by the Family Care Act, WAC 296-130.

11.8 Vacation Cancellation

Should the Employer be required to cancel scheduled vacation leave because of an emergency or exceptional business needs, affected employees may select new vacation leave from available dates.

11.9 Vacation Leave Maximum

Employees may accumulate maximum vacation balances not to exceed two hundred forty (240) hours. However, there are two (2) exceptions that allow vacation leave to accumulate above the maximum:

- A. If an employee's request for vacation leave is denied by the Employer, and the employee is close to the vacation leave maximum, the agency may file an exception to the maximum with the Department of Personnel. If the agency files an exception, the employee's vacation leave maximum will be extended for each month that the Employer must defer the employee's request for vacation leave.
- B. An employee may also accumulate vacation leave days in excess of two hundred forty (240) hours as long as the employee uses the excess balance prior to his or her anniversary date. Any leave in excess of the maximum that is not deferred in advance of its accrual as described above, will be lost on the employee's anniversary date.

11.10 Separation

Any employee who resigns with adequate notice, retires, is laid-off, or is terminated by the Employer, will be entitled to payment for vacation leave credits. In addition, the estate of a deceased employee will be entitled to payment for vacation leave credits.

ARTICLE 12

SICK LEAVE

12.1 Sick Leave Accrual

Full-time employees will accrue eight (8) hours of sick leave under the following conditions:

- A. The employee must be employed for fifteen (15) calendar days or more during the month.
- B. Any leave without pay taken during the month will not be counted toward the fifteen (15) calendar day eligibility requirement.
- C. Holidays for which the employee is otherwise eligible that fall within the qualifying fifteen (15) days count toward the minimum requirement.
- D. Sick leave credit for other than full-time employees will be computed and accrued in an amount proportionate to the time the employee is in pay status during the month to that required for full-time employment.

12.2 Sick Leave Use

Sick leave will be charged in one-tenth (1/10th) of an hour increments and may be used for the following reasons:

- A. A personal illness, injury or medical disability that prevents the employee from performing his or her job, or personal medical or dental appointments.
- B. Care of family members as required by the Family Care Act, WAC 296-130.
- C. Qualifying absences for Family and Medical Leave (Article 15).
- D. Exposure of the employee to contagious disease when attendance at work would jeopardize the health of others.
- E. Preventative health care of relatives or household members, up to one (1) day for each occurrence.
- F. Illness of a child.
- G. Illness of relatives or household members, up to five (5) days for each occurrence or as extended by the Employer.
- H. A death of any relative that requires the employee's absence from work. Sick leave use for bereavement is limited to three (3) days or as extended by the agency for travel. Relatives are defined for this purpose as spouse, significant other, son, daughter, grandchild, foster child, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandparent, parent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, first cousin, brother-in-law, sister-in-law and corresponding relatives of the employee's spouse or significant other.

12.3 Use of Compensatory Time or Vacation Leave for Sick Leave Purposes

The Employer will allow an employee to use compensatory time or vacation leave for sick leave purposes. All compensatory time or vacation leave requests for sick leave purposes will indicate that the compensatory time or vacation leave is being requested in lieu of sick leave.

12.4 Restoration of Vacation Leave

When a condition listed in Subsection 12.2 A, arises while the employee is on vacation leave, the employee will be granted accrued sick leave, in lieu of the approved vacation leave, provided that the employee requests such leave within fourteen (14) calendar days of his or her return to work. The equivalent amount of vacation leave will be restored. The supervisor may require a written medical certificate.

12.5 Sick Leave Reporting and Verification

An employee must promptly notify his or her supervisor on the first day of sick leave and each day after, unless there is mutual agreement to do otherwise. If the employee is in a position where a relief replacement is necessary, the employee will notify his or her supervisor at least one (1) hour prior to his or her scheduled time to report to work. If the Employer suspects abuse, the Employer may require a written medical certificate for any sick leave absence. In addition, an employee returning to work after any sick leave absence may be required to provide written certification from his or her health care provider that the employee is able to return to work and perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation.

12.6 Carry Forward and Transfer

Employees will be allowed to carry forward, from year to year of service, any unused sick leave allowed under this provision, and will retain and carry forward any unused sick leave accumulated prior to the effective date of this Agreement. When an employee moves from one state agency to another, regardless of status, the employee's accrued sick leave will be transferred to the new agency for the employee's use.

12.7 Sick Leave Annual Cash Out

Each January, employees are eligible to receive cash on a one (1) hour for four (4) hours basis for ninety-six (96) hours or less of their accrued sick leave, if:

- A. Their sick leave balance at the end of the previous calendar year exceeds four hundred and eighty (480) hours;

- B. The converted sick leave hours do not reduce their previous calendar year sick leave balance below four hundred and eighty (480) hours; and
- C. They notify their payroll office by January 31st that they would like to convert their sick leave hours earned during the previous calendar year, minus any sick leave hours used during the previous year, to cash.

All converted hours will be deducted from the employee's sick leave balance.

12.8 Sick Leave Separation Cash Out

At the time of retirement from state service or at death, an eligible employee or the employee's estate will receive cash for his or her total sick leave balance on a one (1) hour for four (4) hours basis. For the purposes of this Section, retirement will not include "vested out of service" employees who leave funds on deposit with the retirement system.

12.9 Reemployment

Former state employees who are re-employed within five (5) years of leaving state service will be granted all unused sick leave credits they had at separation.

ARTICLE 13 VOLUNTARY EMPLOYEE BENEFICIARY ASSOCIATIONS

In accordance with state and federal law, agencies and employees in bargaining units may agree to form Voluntary Employee Beneficiary Associations (tax-free medical spending accounts) funded by the retiree's sick leave cash out. Voluntary Employee Beneficiary Associations of employees covered by this Agreement will be implemented only by written agreement with the Union.

ARTICLE 14 SHARED LEAVE

14.1 State employees may donate vacation leave, sick leave, or personal holidays to a fellow state employee who has been called to service in the uniformed services or who is suffering from or has a relative or household member suffering from an extraordinary or severe illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition, which has caused or is likely to cause the employee to take leave without pay or terminate his or her employment. An employee is eligible to request participation in the shared leave program when the employee is able to use accrued vacation leave, sick leave, or a personal holiday. For purposes of the state leave sharing program, the following definitions apply:

- A. "Employee" means any employee who is entitled to accrue sick leave or vacation leave and for whom accurate leave records are maintained.

- B. Employee's "relative" is limited to the employee's spouse, child, stepchild, grandchild, grandparent, or parent.
- C. "Household members" are defined as persons who reside in the same home who have reciprocal duties to and do provide financial support for one another. This term will include foster children and legal wards even if they do not live in the household. The term does not include persons sharing the same general house, when the living style is primarily that of a dormitory or commune.
- D. "Severe" or "extraordinary" condition is defined as serious or extreme and/or life threatening.
- E. "Service in the uniformed services" means the performance of duty on a voluntary or involuntary basis in a uniformed service under competent authority and includes active duty, active duty for training, initial active duty for training, inactive duty training, full-time national guard duty including state-ordered active duty, and a period for which a person is absent from a position of employment for the purpose of an examination to determine the fitness of the person to perform any such duty.
- F. "Uniformed services" means the armed forces, the army national guard, and the air national guard of any state, territory, commonwealth, possession, or district when engaged in active duty for training, inactive duty training, full-time national guard duty, state active duty, the commissioned corps of the public health service, the coast guard, and any other category of persons designated by the President of the United States in time of war or national emergency.

14.2 An employee may be eligible to receive shared leave under the following conditions:

- A. The employee's agency head determines that the employee meets the criteria described in this Section.
- B. For work-related illness or injury, the employee has diligently pursued and been found to be ineligible for benefits under RCW 51.32 if the employee qualifies under Subsection 14.3 A.1.
- C. The employee has abided by agency policies regarding the use of sick leave if the employee qualifies under Subsection 14.3 A.1.
- D. The employee has abided by agency policies regarding the use of vacation leave and paid military leave if the employee qualifies under Subsection 14.3 A.2.

- E. Donated leave is transferable between employees in different state agencies with the agreement of both agency heads.
- 14.3 An employee may donate vacation leave, sick leave, or personal holiday to another employee only under the following conditions:
- A. The receiving employee:
 - 1. Suffers from, or has a relative or household member suffering from, an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which is of an extraordinary or severe nature; or
 - 2. The receiving employee has been called to service in the uniformed services.
 - B. The illness, injury, impairment, condition, or call to service has caused, or is likely to cause, the receiving employee to:
 - 1. Go on leave without pay status; or
 - 2. Terminate state employment.
 - C. The receiving employee's absence and the use of shared leave are justified.
 - D. The receiving employee has depleted or will shortly deplete his or her:
 - 1. Vacation leave and sick leave reserves if the employee qualifies under Subsection 14.3 A.1; or
 - 2. Vacation leave and paid military leave allowed under RCW 38.40.060 if the employee qualifies under Subsection 14.3 A.2.
 - E. The agency head permits the leave to be shared with an eligible employee.
 - F. The donating employee may donate any amount of vacation leave, provided the donation does not cause the employee's vacation leave balance to fall below eighty (80) hours. For part-time employees, requirements for vacation leave balances will be prorated.
 - G. Employees may not donate excess vacation leave that the donor would not be able to take due to an approaching anniversary date.
 - H. The donating employee may donate any specified amount of sick leave, provided the donation does not cause the employee's sick leave balance to fall below one hundred seventy-six (176) hours after the transfer. For purposes of sick leave donation, a day equals the donor's monthly sick leave accrual.

- I. The donating employee may donate all or part of a personal holiday. Any portion of a personal holiday that is not used will be returned to the donating employee.
- 14.4 The agency head will determine the amount of donated leave an employee may receive and may only authorize an employee to use up to a maximum of two hundred sixty-one (261) days of shared leave during total state employment, except that a non-permanent or on-call employee who is eligible to use accrued leave or personal holiday may not use shared leave beyond the termination date specified in the non-permanent or on-call employee's appointment letter.
- 14.5 The agency head will require the employee to submit, prior to approval or disapproval, a medical certificate from a licensed physician or health care practitioner verifying the severe or extraordinary nature and expected duration of the condition when the employee is qualified under Subsection 14.3 A.1. The agency head will require the employee to submit, prior to approval or disapproval, a copy of the military orders verifying the employee's required absence when the employee is qualified for shared leave under Subsection 14.3 A.2.
- 14.6 Any donated leave may only be used by the recipient for the purposes specified in this Section.
- 14.7 The receiving employee will be paid his or her regular rate of pay; therefore, one (1) hour of shared leave may cover more or less than one (1) hour of the recipient's salary. The calculation of the recipient's leave value will be in accordance with Office of Financial Management policies, regulations, and procedures. The dollar value of the leave is converted from the donor to the recipient. The leave received will be coded as shared leave and be maintained separately from all other leave balances.
- 14.8 All forms of paid leave available for use by the recipient must be used prior to using shared leave when qualified under Subsection 14.3 A.1. All forms of paid leave, except sick leave, available for use by the recipient must be used prior to using shared leave when qualified under Subsection 14.3 A.2.
- 14.9 Any shared leave not used by the recipient during each incident/occurrence as determined by the agency director will be returned to the donor(s). The shared leave remaining will be divided among the donors on a prorated basis based on the original donated value and returned at its original donor value and reinstated to each donor's appropriate leave balance. The return will be prorated back based on the donor's original donation.
- 14.10 All donated leave must be given voluntarily. No employee will be coerced, threatened, intimidated, or financially induced into donating leave for purposes of this program.

- 14.11 The agency will maintain records that contain sufficient information to provide for legislative review.
- 14.12 An employee who uses leave that is transferred under this Section will not be required to repay the value of the leave that he or she used.

ARTICLE 15

FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE

- 15.1 A. Consistent with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA), an employee who has worked for the state for at least twelve (12) months and for at least one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours during the twelve (12) months prior to the requested leave is entitled to up to twelve (12) workweeks of FMLA leave in a twelve (12) month period for any combination of the following:
1. Parental leave for the birth and to care for a newborn child, or placement for adoption or foster care of a child and to care for that child; or
 2. Personal medical leave due to the employee's own serious health condition that requires the employee's absence from work; or
 3. Family medical leave to care for a spouse, son, daughter, or parent who suffers from a serious health condition that requires on-site care or supervision by the employee.
- B. Entitlement to FMLA leave for the care of a newborn child or newly adopted or foster child ends twelve (12) months from the date of birth or the placement of the foster or adopted child.
- C. The one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hour eligibility requirement noted above does not count paid time off such as time used as vacation leave, sick leave, exchange time, personal holidays, compensatory time off, or shared leave.
- 15.2 The twelve (12) week FMLA leave entitlement is available to the employee, provided that eligibility requirements listed in Section 15.1 are met. The FMLA leave entitlement period will be a rolling twelve (12) month period measured forward from the date an employee begins FMLA leave. Each time an employee takes FMLA leave during the twelve (12) month period, the leave will be subtracted from the twelve (12) weeks of available leave.
- 15.3 The Employer will continue the employee's existing employer-paid health insurance, life insurance and disability insurance benefits during the period of leave covered by FMLA. The employee will be required to pay his or her share of health insurance, life insurance and disability insurance premiums.

- 15.4 The Employer has the authority to designate absences that meet the criteria of the FMLA. The use of any paid or unpaid leave (excluding leave for a work-related illness or injury covered by workers' compensation or assault benefits and compensatory time) for an FMLA-qualifying event will run concurrently with, not in addition to, the use of the FMLA for that event.
- 15.5 A. Parental leave will be granted to the employee for the purpose of bonding with his or her natural newborn, adoptive or foster child. Parental leave may extend up to six (6) months, including time covered by the FMLA, during the first year after the child's birth or placement. Leave beyond the period covered by the FMLA may only be denied by the Employer due to operational necessity. Such denial may be grieved beginning at the agency director step of the grievance procedure in Article 29.
- B. Parental leave may be a combination of the employee's accrued vacation leave, sick leave for pregnancy disability or other qualifying events, personal holiday, compensatory time, or leave without pay.

A. Employees required to have a Commercial Driver's License (CDL) or to be licensed by the United States Coast Guard, are subject to pre-employment, post-accident, random and reasonable suspicion testing in accordance with the U.S. Department of Transportation rules, Coast Guard Regulations (46 CFR Part 16) or the Federal Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1991. For purposes of this Article, employees who perform other safety-sensitive functions are those issued firearms and those licensed health care professionals who administer or dispense medications as part of their job duties.

C. Post-accident drug and alcohol testing may be conducted when a work-related incident has occurred involving death, serious bodily injury or significant property/environmental damage, or the potential for death, serious injury, or significant property/environmental damage, and when the employee's action(s) or inaction(s) either contributed to the incident or cannot be completely discounted as a contributing factor.

- D. Testing
When reasonable suspicion exists, employees must submit to alcohol and/or controlled substance testing when required by the Employer. A refusal to test is considered the same as a positive test. When an employee is referred for testing, he or she will be removed immediately from duty and transported to the collection site. The cost of reasonable suspicion testing, including the employee's salary will be paid by the Employer.

22.6 Drug and Alcohol Testing – General

Employees in the same agency as the employee being tested will not do collection and processing of samples, excluding law enforcement officers using a breath-testing device. An employee notified of a positive controlled substance test result may request an independent test of his or her split sample at the employee's expense. If the test result is negative, the Employer will reimburse the employee for the cost of the split sample test.
- B. An employee who has a positive alcohol test and/or a positive controlled substance test may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, based on the incident that prompted the testing, including a violation of the drug and alcohol free work place rules.

- 27.5 A. Upon request, an employee has the right to a union representative at an investigatory interview called by the Employer, if the employee reasonably believes discipline could result. An employee may also have a union representative at a pre-disciplinary meeting. If the requested representative is not reasonably available, the employee will select another representative who is available. Employees seeking representation are responsible for contacting their representative.

- B. The role of the union representative in regard to Employer-initiated investigations is to provide assistance and counsel to the employee and not interfere with the Employer's right to conduct the investigation. Every effort will be made to cooperate in the investigation.

27.6 Employees placed on an alternate assignment during an investigation will not be prohibited from contacting their union steward unless there is a conflict of interest, in which case the employee may contact another union steward. This does not preclude the Employer from restricting an employee's access to agency premises.

27.7 Prior to imposing discipline, except oral or written reprimands, the Employer will inform the employee in writing of the reasons for the contemplated discipline and an explanation of the evidence. The Employer will provide the Union with a copy. The employee will be provided an opportunity to respond either at a meeting scheduled by the Employer, or in writing if the employee prefers. A pre-disciplinary meeting with the Employer will be considered time worked.

27.8 The Employer will provide an employee with fifteen (15) calendar days' written notice prior to the effective date of a reduction in pay or demotion.

27.9 The Employer has the authority to impose discipline, which is then subject to the grievance procedure set forth in Article 29. B. Records of disciplinary actions involving reductions-in-pay, suspensions or demotions, and written reprimands not removed after three (3) years will be removed after seven (7) years if:

1. Circumstances do not warrant a longer retention period; and
2. There has been no subsequent discipline; and
3. The employee submits a written request for its removal.

- C. Nothing in this Section will prevent the Employer from agreeing to an earlier removal date, unless to do so would violate RCW 41.06.450.

ARTICLE 28

PRIVACY AND OFF-DUTY CONDUCT

- 28.1 Employees have the right to confidentiality related to individual performance, personal information and personnel issues to the extent provided/allowed by law. The Employer and the Union will take appropriate steps to maintain such confidentiality.
- 28.2 When documents or information in an employee's personnel, payroll, supervisor, or training file are the subject of a public disclosure request, the Employer will provide the employee with a copy of the request at least seven (7) calendar days in advance of the intended release date. The Employer will redact the employee's social security number on any document subject to a public disclosure request prior to its release.
- 28.3 The off-duty activities of an employee will not be grounds for disciplinary action unless said activities are a conflict of interest as set forth in RCW 42.52 or are detrimental to the employee's work performance or the program of the agency. Employees will report any court-imposed sanctions or conditions that affect their ability to perform assigned duties to their appointing authority within twenty-four (24) hours or prior to their next scheduled work shift, whichever occurs first. Employees, excluding those in the Washington State Patrol (WSP), will report any arrests that affect their ability to perform assigned duties to their appointing authority within forty-eight (48) hours or prior to returning to work, whichever occurs first. Employees in the WSP will continue to abide by WSP regulations relating to off-duty conduct.
- 28.4 Employees will notify the Employer prior to engaging in any off-duty employment. Employees may engage in off-duty employment that will not interfere with the performance of their duties or result in a conflict of interest.

ARTICLE 29

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 29.1 The Union and the Employer agree that it is in the best interest of all parties to resolve disputes at the earliest opportunity and at the lowest level. The Union and the Employer encourage problem resolution between employees and management and are committed to assisting in resolution of disputes as soon as possible. In the event a dispute is not resolved in an informal manner, this Article provides a formal process for problem resolution.

29.2 Terms and Requirements

A grievance is an allegation by an employee or a group of employees that there has been a violation, misapplication, or misinterpretation of this Agreement, which occurred during the term of this Agreement. The term “grievant” as used in this Article includes the term “grievants.”

B. Filing a Grievance

Grievances may be filed by the Union on behalf of an employee or on behalf of a group of employees. If the Union does so, it will set forth the name of the employee or the names of the group of employees.

C. Computation of Time

The time limits in this Article must be strictly adhered to unless mutually modified in writing. Days are calendar days, and will be counted by excluding the first day and including the last day of timelines. When the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the last day will be the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or holiday. Transmittal of grievances, appeals and responses will be in writing, and timelines will apply to the date of receipt, not the date of postmarking.

D. Failure to Meet Timelines

Failure by the Union to comply with the timelines will result in the automatic withdrawal of the grievance. Failure by the Employer to comply with the timelines will entitle the Union to move the grievance to the next step of the procedure.

E. Contents

The written grievance must include the following information:

1. The nature of the grievance;
2. The facts upon which it is based;
3. The specific article and section of the Agreement violated;
4. The specific remedy requested;
5. The name of the grievant; and
6. The name and signature of the Union representative.

F. Modifications

No newly alleged violations may be made after the initial written grievance is filed, except by written mutual agreement.

G. Resolution

If the Employer provides the requested remedy or a mutually agreed-upon alternative, the grievance will be considered resolved and may not be moved to the next step.

H. Withdrawal

A grievance may be withdrawn at any time.

I. Resubmission

If terminated, resolved or withdrawn, a grievance cannot be resubmitted.

J. Pay

Union stewards will be provided a reasonable amount of time during their normal working hours to investigate and process grievances through the agency head level within the steward's office, facility or geographic jurisdiction within the bargaining unit. Grievants and union stewards will not lose pay for attending informal dispute resolution meetings, grievance meetings, alternative dispute resolution sessions, and arbitration hearings held during their work time. Grievants and union stewards will not be paid for informal dispute resolution meetings, grievance meetings, alternative dispute resolution sessions, and arbitration hearings held during their off-duty time.

K. Group Grievances

No more than five (5) grievants will be permitted to attend a single grievance meeting.

L. Consolidation

The Employer may consolidate grievances arising out of the same set of facts.

M. Bypass

Any of the steps in this procedure may be bypassed with mutual written consent of the parties involved at the time the bypass is sought.

N. Discipline

Disciplinary grievances will be initiated at the level at which the disputed action was taken.

O. Grievance Files

Written grievances and responses will be maintained separately from the personnel files of the employees.

P. Alternative Resolution Methods

Any time during the grievance process, by mutual consent, the parties may use alternative methods to resolve the dispute. If the parties agree to use alternative methods, the time frames in this Article are suspended. If the selected alternative method does not result in a resolution, the Union may return to the grievance process and the time frames resume. Any expenses and fees of alternative methods will be shared equally by the parties.

29.3 Filing and Processing (Except Departments Of Corrections and Social and Health Services Employees)

A. Filing

A grievance must be filed within twenty-one (21) days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence. This twenty-one (21) day period will be used to attempt to informally resolve the dispute.

B. Processing

Step 1 If the issue is not resolved informally, the Union may present a written grievance to the employee's supervisor or designee with a copy to the Human Resources Office within the twenty-one (21) day period described above. The responsible supervisor, manager or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the grievance, and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

Note: The agencies listed in Appendix B will bypass Step 1.

Step 2 If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the Union may move it to the next step by filing it with the appointing authority, with a copy to the Human Resources Office, within fifteen (15) days of the Union's receipt of the Step 1 decision. The appointing authority or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the appeal, and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

Step 3 If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the Union may move it to the next step by filing it with the agency head, with a copy to the Human Resources Office, within fifteen (15) days of the Union's receipt of the Step 2 decision. The agency head or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the appeal, and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

Note: If the agency head is the only appointing authority for the agency, Step 3 will be bypassed.

Step 4 If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3, the Union may file a demand for arbitration (with a copy of the grievance and all responses attached). It will be filed with the Director of the OFM Labor Relations Office (OFM/LRO) and the agency's Human Resource Office within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Step 3 decision. Within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the arbitration demand, the OFM/LRO will discuss with the Union:

1. If a pre-arbitration review meeting will be scheduled with the OFM/LRO Director or designee, an agency representative, and the Union's staff representative to review and attempt to settle the dispute. If the matter is not resolved in this pre-arbitration review, within fifteen (15) days of the meeting, the Union may file a demand to arbitrate the dispute with the American Arbitration Association (AAA).
2. If the parties are unable to reach agreement to conduct a meeting, the OFM/LRO Director or designee will notify the Union in writing that no pre-arbitration review meeting will be scheduled. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of this notice, the Union may file a demand to arbitrate the matter with the AAA.

C. Selecting an Arbitrator

The parties will select an arbitrator by mutual agreement or by alternately striking names supplied by the AAA, and will follow the Labor Arbitration Rules of the AAA unless they agree otherwise in writing.

D. Authority of the Arbitrator

1. The arbitrator will:
 - a. Have no authority to rule contrary to, add to, subtract from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement;
 - b. Be limited in his or her decision to the grievance issue(s) set forth in the original written grievance unless the parties agree to modify it;
 - c. Not make any award that provides an employee with compensation greater than would have resulted had there been no violation of this Agreement;
 - d. Not have the authority to order the Employer to modify his or her staffing levels or to direct staff to work overtime.
2. The arbitrator will hear arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability before the first day of arbitration at a time convenient for the parties, immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process. If the issue of arbitrability is argued prior to the first day of arbitration, it may be argued in writing or by telephone, at the discretion of the arbitrator. Although the decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.
3. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the Union, the Employer and the grievant.

E. Arbitration Costs

1. The expenses and fees of the arbitrator, and the cost (if any) of the hearing room, will be shared equally by the parties.

2. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or canceled because of one party, that party will bear the cost of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed upon postponements or cancellations will be shared equally by the parties.
3. If either party desires a record of the arbitration, a court reporter may be used. If that party purchases a transcript, a copy will be provided to the arbitrator free of charge. If the other party desires a copy of the transcript, it will pay for half of the costs of the fee for the court reporter, the original transcript and a copy.
4. Each party is responsible for the costs of its staff representatives, attorneys, and all other costs related to the development and presentation of their case. When an employee is subpoenaed as a witness on behalf of the Union in an arbitration case, the employee may appear without loss of pay if he or she appears during his or her work time, providing the testimony given is related to his or her job function or involves matters he or she has witnessed and is relevant to the arbitration case. Every effort will be made to avoid the presentation of repetitive witnesses. The Union is responsible for paying any travel or per diem expenses for its witnesses, the grievant and the union steward.

29.4 Filing and Processing – Departments of Corrections and Social and Health Services Employees (Non-Panel Process)

Grievances appealing an employee's disability separation or disciplinary reduction in pay, demotion, suspension, or discharge will be processed as follows:

A. Filing

A grievance must be filed within twenty-one (21) days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence. This twenty-one (21) day period will be used to attempt to informally resolve the dispute.

B. Processing

Step 1 If an issue is not resolved informally, the Union may present a written grievance to the appointing authority or designee with a copy to the Human Resource Office within the twenty-one (21) day period described above. The appointing authority or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the grievance, and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

Step 2 If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the Union may move it to the next step by filing it with the agency's Labor Relations Office in Olympia, with a copy to the Human Resources Office, within fifteen (15) days of the Union's receipt of the Step 1 decision. The agency head or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the appeal, and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

Step 3 If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the Union may file a demand for arbitration (with a copy of the grievance and all responses attached). It will be filed upon the Director of the OFM Labor Relations Office (OFM/LRO) and the agency's Labor Relations Office within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Step 2 decision. Within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the arbitration demand, the OFM/LRO will discuss with the Union:

1. If a pre-arbitration review meeting will be scheduled with the OFM/LRO Director or designee, an agency representative, and the Union's staff representative to review and attempt to settle the dispute. If the matter is not resolved in this pre-arbitration review, within 15 days of the meeting, the Union may file a demand to arbitrate the dispute with the American Arbitration Association (AAA).
2. If the parties are unable to reach agreement to conduct a meeting, the OFM/LRO Director or designee will notify the Union in writing that no pre-arbitration review meeting will be scheduled. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of this notice, the Union may file a demand to arbitrate the matter with the AAA.

C. Selecting an Arbitrator

The parties will select an arbitrator by mutual agreement or by alternately striking names supplied by the AAA, and will follow the Labor Arbitration Rules of the AAA unless they agree otherwise in writing.

D. Authority of the Arbitrator

1. The arbitrator will:
 - a. Have no authority to rule contrary to, add to, subtract from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement.
 - b. Be limited in his or her decision to the grievance issue(s) set forth in the original written grievance unless the parties agree to modify it.
 - c. Not make any award that provides an employee with compensation greater than would have resulted had there been no violation of this Agreement.
 - d. Not have the authority to order the Employer to modify his or her staffing levels or to direct staff to work overtime.

2. The arbitrator will hear arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability before the first day of arbitration at a time convenient for the parties, immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process. If the issue of arbitrability is argued prior to the first day of arbitration, it may be argued in writing or by telephone, at the discretion of the arbitrator. Although the decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.
3. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the Union, the Employer and the grievant.

E. Arbitration Costs

1. The expenses and fees of the arbitrator, and the cost (if any) of the hearing room, will be shared equally by the parties.
2. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or canceled because of one party, that party will bear the cost of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed upon postponements or cancellations will be shared equally by the parties.
3. If either party desires a record of the arbitration, a court reporter may be used. If that party purchases a transcript, a copy will be provided to the arbitrator free of charge. If the other party desires a copy of the transcript, it will pay for half of the costs of the fee for the court reporter, the original transcript and a copy.
4. Each party is responsible for the costs of its staff representatives, attorneys, and all other costs related to the development and presentation of their case. When an employee is subpoenaed as a witness on behalf of the Union in an arbitration case, the employee may appear without loss of pay if he or she appears during his or her work time, providing the testimony given is related to his or her job function or involves matters he or she has witnessed and is relevant to the arbitration case. Every effort will be made to avoid the presentation of repetitive witnesses. The Union is responsible for paying any travel or per diem expenses for its witnesses, the grievant and the union steward.

29.5 Filing and Processing for Departments of Corrections and Social and Health Services Employees (Panel Process)

All grievances other than disability separations or the disciplinary actions described in Section 29.4, above, will be processed as follows:

A. Filing

A grievance must be filed within twenty-one (21) days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence. This twenty-one (21) day period will be used to attempt to informally resolve the dispute.

B. Processing

Step 1 If an issue is not resolved informally, the Union may present a written grievance to the appointing authority or designee, with a copy to the Human Resources Office within the twenty-one (21) day period described above. The appointing authority or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the grievance, and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

Step 2 Within fifteen (15) days of receiving the Step 1 decision, an employee may choose to move his or her grievance to the Grievance Resolution Panel described below or to the grievance process described in Section 29.4, beginning at Step 2. Identification of the employee's choice must be in writing and delivered to the agency's Labor Relations Office in Olympia. An employee's failure to identify his or her choice of venue will result in the grievance being appealed to the Grievance Resolution Panel.

1. Grievance Resolution Panel

The Employer and the Union will establish a permanent committee for the resolution of grievances, referred to as the Grievance Resolution Panel. The panel will not have the authority to contradict, add to, subtract from or otherwise modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The panel will only have the authority to interpret the provisions of this Agreement to the extent necessary to render a decision on the case being heard.

2. Panel Membership

- a. The Grievance Resolution Panel will consist of three (3) agency representatives appointed by the Employer, and three (3) union panel members appointed by the Union.
- b. A staff representative and an employer representative will co-chair the panel. The co-chairs will preside at the meetings and jointly author the decision of the panel.
- c. The employer co-chair will function as the panel secretary. For each meeting, the panel secretary will prepare the agenda and distribute it, a copy of the grievance, and the Step 1 response for each case to be heard. The panel secretary will keep the records of the meeting and provide copies of the decisions to each panel member. The panel secretary will be assisted by a support employee to be provided by the Employer.

- d. If the case involves an employee from a facility or an office where a staff representative has representational responsibility, the staff representative may not serve as a panel member during the hearing of the case. Union stewards who have represented the grievant on the case or are located in the same office as the grievant will not serve on the panel. Employer panel representatives will not serve on the cases involving facilities or offices where they are employed or located.
3. Panel Meetings
- Regular meetings of the Grievance Resolution Panel will be held monthly or as needed. The parties will agree upon the date. The location of the meeting will be determined by agreement of the co-chairs.
4. Postponement of Cases
- Both parties have the right to postpone a case one (1) time. Additional postponements will be permitted only by agreement of both parties. Postponements must be requested at least seven (7) calendar days in advance of the hearing.
5. Panel Procedures
- a. Staff representatives, union stewards, and representatives of the Employer may present cases before the panel. Attorneys may attend in an advisory capacity only and will not present cases before the panel or serve as a panel member.
 - b. Representatives may make opening statements, present cases and give closing arguments. The co-chairs may cross-examine either party and may, by mutual agreement, allow questions from other panel members.
 - c. At the beginning of each case, each party may raise an objection if they believe there has been a procedural violation of the grievance procedure. The panel will hear arguments from the parties when such an objection is raised and render a decision on the objection prior to hearing the case. If the panel is unable to reach a decision on the objection, the panel may choose to hear the grievance on its merit. If the panel chooses to hear the grievance, this does not preclude either party from raising the objection at a later step in the grievance procedure.
 - d. Non-participants are permitted to observe hearings. Either co-chair will have the right to exclude non-participants from the hearing room when necessary to protect the integrity of the grievance procedure or the sensitivity of the issue being grieved.
 - e. Following presentation of each case, panel members will go into executive session. Only panel members and the panel secretary may be present during such sessions. During executive session, panel members will discuss the case and render a decision. If during an executive session, the panel determines further information is necessary in order to render a decision, the hearing will be reconvened. After a decision has been reached, all interested parties will be called into the hearing room and advised of the decision. A written decision will be delivered to the parties at that time.

6. Panel Decisions

Any majority decision rendered by the Grievance Resolution Panel is final and binding on all parties to the case. Except in the case of grievances regarding oral reprimands, if the panel is unable to decide a grievance and deadlocks—with a three-three (3-3) decision—on the case, the Union may request arbitration, and process the matter in accordance with Subsections 29.4 B, Step3, through 29.4 E, above.

29.6 Removal of Documents

All material placed in the employee's personnel file relating to misconduct will be removed where the employee has been fully exonerated of wrongdoing. The Employer may retain this information in a legal defense file and it will only be used or released when required by a regulatory agency, or in defense of an appeal or legal action.

29.7 Election of Remedies

Arbitrating a claim under this Article constitutes a waiver of the right to pursue the same claim before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Human Rights Commission, or in a judicial or other forum. Pursuit of a claim before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Human Rights Commission, or in a judicial or other forum constitutes a waiver of the right to pursue the same claim through arbitration under this Article.

ARTICLE 30

EMPLOYEE ADVISORY SERVICE

The Employee Advisory Service within the Department of Personnel is responsible for the employee assistance program established in accordance with RCW 41.04.700 through 730. Individual employees' participation in the Employee Advisory Service and all individually identifiable information gathered in the process of conducting the program will be held in strict confidence; except that the Employer may be provided with the following information about employees referred by the Employer due to poor job performance:

- A. Whether or not the referred employee made an appointment;
- B. The date and time the employee arrived and departed;
- C. Whether the employee agreed to follow the advice of counselors; and
- D. Whether further appointments were scheduled.

Participation or nonparticipation by any employee in the Employee Advisory Service will not be a factor in any decision affecting an employee's job security, promotional opportunities, disciplinary action, or other employment rights. However, nothing relieves employees from the responsibility of performing their jobs in an acceptable manner.

ARTICLE 31

PERSONNEL FILES

- 31.1 There will be one (1) official personnel file maintained by the Employer for each employee. The location of personnel files will be determined by the employing agency. All references to "supervisory file" in this Agreement refer to a file kept by the employee's first-line supervisor.
- 31.2 An employee may examine his or her own personnel file and supervisory file. Review of the personnel file will be in the presence of an Employer representative during business hours, unless otherwise arranged. An employee will not be required to take leave to review his or her personnel file. Written authorization from the employee is required before any representative of the employee will be granted access to the personnel file. The employee and/or representative may not remove any contents; however, an employee may provide a written rebuttal to any information in the file that he or she considers objectionable. The Employer may charge a reasonable fee for copying any materials beyond the first copy requested by the employee or his or her representative.
- 31.3 A copy of any material to be placed in an employee's personnel file that might lead to disciplinary action will be provided to the employee. An employee may have documents relevant to his or her work performance placed in his or her personnel file.
- 31.4 Adverse material or information related to alleged misconduct that is determined to be false and all such information in situations where the employee has been fully exonerated of wrongdoing will be removed from the employee's personnel file. The Employer may retain this information in a legal defense file and it will only be used or released when required by a regulatory agency (acting in their regulatory capacity), in the defense of an appeal or legal action, or as otherwise required by law.
- 31.5 Medical files will be kept separate and confidential in accordance with state and federal law.

ARTICLE 32

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION AND DISABILITY SEPARATION

- 32.1 The Employer and the Union will comply with all relevant federal and state laws, regulations and executive orders providing reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities.
- 32.2 An employee who believes that he or she suffers a disability and requires a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of his or her position may request such an accommodation by submitting a request to the Employer.
- 32.3 Employees requesting accommodation must cooperate with the Employer in discussing the need for and possible form of any accommodation. The Employer may require supporting medical documentation and may require the employee to obtain a second medical opinion at Employer expense. Medical information disclosed to the Employer will be kept confidential.
- 32.4 The Employer will determine whether an employee is eligible for a reasonable accommodation and the final form of any accommodation to be provided. The Employer will attempt to accommodate the employee in his or her current position prior to looking at accommodations in alternative vacant positions.
- 32.5 An employee with permanent status may be separated from service when the agency determines that the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of the employee's position due to a mental, sensory or physical disability, which cannot be reasonably accommodated. Determinations of disability may be made by the agency based on an employee's written request for disability separation or after obtaining a written statement from a physician or licensed mental health professional. The agency can require an employee to obtain a medical examination, at the agency's expense, from a physician or licensed mental health professional of the agency's choice. Evidence may be requested from the physician or licensed mental health professional regarding the employee's limitations.
- 32.6 The agency may immediately separate an employee when the agency has medical documentation of the employee's disability and has determined that the employee cannot be reasonably accommodated in any available position, or when the employee requests separation due to disability.
- 32.7 An employee separated due to disability will be placed in the General Government Transition Pool Program if he or she submits a written request for reemployment in accordance with WAC 357-46-090 through 105 and has met the reemployment requirements of WAC 357-19-475.

- 32.8 Disability separation is not a disciplinary action. An employee who has been separated because of a disability may grieve his or her disability separation in accordance with Article 29, Grievance Procedure, unless the separation was at the employee's request.

ARTICLE 33

SENIORITY

33.1 Definition

A. Seniority for full-time employees will be defined as the employee's length of unbroken state service. Seniority for part-time or on-call employees will be based on actual hours worked. Leave without pay of fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days or less will not affect an employee's seniority. When an employee is on leave without pay for more than fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days, the employee's seniority will not be affected when the leave without pay is taken for:

1. Military leave or United States Public Health Service,
2. Compensable work-related injury or illness leave,
3. Governmental service leave and leave to enter the Peace Corps, not to exceed two (2) years and one (1) month,
4. Educational leave, contingent upon successful completion of the coursework, and/or
5. Reducing the effects of layoff.

When an employee is on leave without pay for more than fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days and the absence is not due to one of the reasons listed above, the employee's seniority date will be moved forward in an amount equal to the duration of the leave without pay. Time spent on a temporary layoff or when an employee's work hours are reduced in accordance with Section 34.5, of Article 34, Layoff and Recall, will not be deducted from the calculation of seniority. Employees who are separated from state service due to layoff and are reemployed within two (2) years of their separation date will not be considered to have a break in service.

B. For employees whose positions are assigned to an academic and/or vocational education program or facility that follows the customary public school practice of a less than twelve (12) month school year, the Employer will place the employee on leave without pay for all or part of the time the program or facility is closed for customary school vacations and will not adjust the employee's seniority date.

- C. For the purposes of layoffs, a maximum of five (5) years' credit will be added to the seniority of permanent employees who are veterans or to their unmarried widows or widowers, as provided in RCW 41.06.133 (13).

33.2 Ties

If two (2) or more employees have the same unbroken state service date, ties will be broken in the following order:

- A. Longest continuous time within their current job classification;
- B. Longest continuous time with the agency; and
- C. By lot.

33.3 Seniority List

The Employer will prepare and post a seniority list. The list will be updated annually and will contain each employee's name, job classification and seniority date. Employees will have fourteen (14) calendar days in which to appeal their seniority date to their Human Resource Office, after which time the date will be presumed correct. A copy of the seniority list will be provided to the Union at the time of posting.

33.4 Application

This Article will apply prospectively. Employees will retain their current unbroken state service date, which will become their seniority date.

ARTICLE 34 LAYOFF AND RECALL

34.1 Definition

Layoff is an Employer-initiated action taken in accordance with Section 34.3 below that results in:

- A. Separation from service with the Employer;
- B. Employment in a class with a lower salary range;
- C. Reduction in the work year; or
- D. Reduction in the number of work hours.

34.2 The Employer will determine the basis for, extent, effective date and the length of layoffs in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

34.3 Basis for Layoff

Layoffs may occur for any of the following reasons:

- A. Lack of funds
- B. Lack of work
- C. Good faith reorganization

- D. Ineligibility to continue in a position that was reallocated, or the employee's choice not to continue in a position that was reallocated to a classification with a lower salary range maximum.
- E. Termination of a project
- F. Fewer positions available than the number of employees entitled to such positions either by statute or other provision.

34.4 Voluntary Layoff, Leave without Pay or Reduction in Hours

Appointing authorities may allow an employee to volunteer to be laid off, take leave without pay or reduce his or her hours of work in order to reduce layoffs. If it is necessary to limit the number of employees in an agency on unpaid leave at the same time, the appointing authority will determine who will be granted a leave without pay and/or reduction in hours based upon staffing needs. Employees who volunteer to be laid off may request to participate in the General Government Transition Pool Program and/or have their names placed on the layoff lists for the job classifications in which they held permanent status.

34.5 Non-Permanent and Probationary Employees

Employees with permanent status will not be separated from state service through a layoff action without first being offered positions they have the skills and abilities to perform within their current job classification within the layoff unit currently held by non-permanent and probationary employees. Non-permanent employees will be separated from employment before probationary employees.

34.6 Temporary Reduction of Work Hours or Layoff – Employer Option

- A. The Employer may temporarily reduce the work hours of an employee to no less than twenty (20) per week due to an unanticipated loss of funding, revenue shortfall, lack of work, shortage of material or equipment, or other unexpected or unusual reasons. Employees will normally receive notice of seven (7) calendar days of a temporary reduction of work hours.
- B. The Employer may temporarily layoff an employee for up to thirty (30) calendar days due to an unanticipated loss of funding, revenue shortfall, lack of work, shortage of material or equipment, or other unexpected or unusual reasons. Employees will normally receive notice of seven (7) calendar days of a temporary layoff.
- C. An employee whose work hours are temporarily reduced or who is temporarily laid off will not be entitled to:
 - 1. Be paid any leave balance if the layoff was due to the lack of funds,
 - 2. Bump to any other position, or
 - 3. Be placed on the layoff list.

34.7 Layoff Units

- A. A layoff unit is defined as the geographical entity or administrative/organizational unit in each agency used for determining available options for employees who are being laid off.
- B. The layoff unit(s) for each agency covered by this Agreement are described in Appendix C, Layoff Units.

34.8 Skills and Abilities

Skills and abilities are documented criteria found in license/certification requirements, federal and state requirements, position descriptions, bona fide occupational qualifications approved by the Human Rights Commission, or recruitment announcements that have been identified at least three (3) months prior to the layoff.

34.9 Formal Options

- A. Employees will be laid off in accordance with seniority, as defined in Article 33, Seniority, among the group of employees with the required skills and abilities, as defined in Section 34.8, above. Employees being laid off will be provided the following options to comparable positions within the layoff unit, in descending order, as follows:
 - 1. A funded vacant position for which the employee has the skills and abilities, within his or her current job classification.
 - 2. A funded filled position held by the least senior employee for which the employee has the skills and abilities, within his or her current job classification.
 - 3. A funded vacant or filled position held by the least senior employee for which the employee has the skills and abilities, at the same or lower salary range as his or her current permanent position, within a job classification in which the employee has held permanent status.

Options will be provided in descending order of salary range and one progressively lower level at a time. Vacant positions will be offered prior to filled positions.

- B. Employees who are laid off may request to have their name placed on the layoff lists for the job classifications in which they have held permanent status.

34.10 Informal Options

An employee being laid off may be offered a funded vacant position within his or her layoff unit, provided the employee meets the skills and abilities required of the position and it is at the same or lower salary range as the position in which the employee currently holds permanent status.

34.11 Notification for the Union

The Employer will notify the Union before implementing a permanent layoff.

34.12 Notification to Employees With Permanent Status

- A. Except for temporary reduction in work hours and temporary layoffs as provided in Section 34.6, employees with permanent status will receive written notice at least fifteen (15) calendar days before the effective layoff date. The notice will include the basis for the layoff and any options available to the employee. The Union will be provided with a copy of the notice.
- B. Except for temporary reduction in work hours and temporary layoffs as provided in Section 34.6, if the Employer chooses to implement a layoff action without providing fifteen (15) calendar days' notice, the employee will be paid his or her salary for the days that he or she would have worked had full notice been given.
- C. Employees will be provided five (5) calendar days to accept or decline, in writing, any option provided to them. This time period will run concurrent with the fifteen (15) calendar days' notice provided by the Employer to the employee.
- D. The day that notification is given constitutes the first day of notice.

34.13 Salary

Employees appointed to a position as a result of a layoff action will have their salary determined as follows:

- A. Transfer or Bump
An employee who accepts a transfer or bumps to another position within his or her current job classification will retain his or her current salary.
- B. Voluntary Demotion in Lieu of Layoff and Bump to a Lower Position
An employee who bumps to another position with a lower salary range will be paid an amount equal to his or her current salary, provided it is within the salary range of the new position. In those cases where the employee's current salary exceeds the maximum amount of the salary range for the new position, the employee will be compensated at the maximum salary of the new salary range.
- C. Appointment from a Layoff List
 - 1. Employees who are appointed from a layoff list to a position with the same salary range as that of the position from which they were laid off will be paid an amount equal to the salary they were receiving at the time they were laid off, plus any cost of living adjustments that occurred during the time they were laid off.

2. Employees who are appointed from a layoff list to a position with a lower salary range than the position from which they were laid off will be paid an amount equal to the salary they were receiving at the time they were laid off, provided it is within the salary range of the new position. In those cases where the employee's prior salary exceeds the maximum amount of the salary range for the new position, the employee will be compensated at the maximum salary of the new salary range.

34.14 Transition Review Period

- A. The Employer will require an employee to complete a six (6) month transition review period when the employee accepts a layoff option to a job classification or future-equivalent job classification in which he or she has:
 1. Not held permanent status,
 2. Been appointed from the General Government Transition Pool Program, or
 3. Been appointed from a layoff list.
- B. The Employer may extend a transition review period as long as the extension does not cause the total period to exceed twelve (12) months. Employees will receive a permanent appointment to the position upon successful completion of the transition review period.
- C. The Employer may separate an employee or an employee may voluntarily separate during the transition review period. Upon separation, and at the employee's request, the employee's name will be placed on or returned to the layoff list. The employee will remain on the list until such time as his or her eligibility expires or he or she has been rehired. An employee who is separated during his or her transition review period may request a review of the separation by the Director or Secretary of the agency or designee within twenty-one (21) calendar days from the effective date of the separation. Separation during the transition review period will not be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

34.15 Recall

- A. The Employer will maintain layoff lists for each job classification, which will include geographic availability. Employees who are laid off may have their name placed on the lists for the job classification from which they were laid off or bumped and will indicate the geographic areas in which they are willing to accept employment. Additionally, employees may request to have their name placed on layoff lists for other job classifications in which they have held permanent status. An employee will remain on the layoff lists for two (2) years from the effective date of the qualifying action.

- B. When a vacancy occurs within an agency and when there are names on a layoff list, the Employer will fill the position in accordance with Article 4, Hiring and Appointments. An employee may be removed from the layoff list if he or she is certified from the list and waives appointment to a position two (2) times.

34.16 General Government Transition Pool Program

Employees who are notified that they are at risk of being laid off or have been laid off may request their names be placed into the General Government Transition Pool Program administered by the Department of Personnel. When a vacancy occurs within an agency, the Employer will consider employees in the General Government Transition Pool Program in accordance with Article 4, Hiring and Appointments.

34.17 Project Employment

- A. Project employees have layoff rights within their project. Formal options will be determined using the procedure outlined in Section 34.9, above.
- B. Permanent status employees who left regular classified positions to accept project employment without a break in service have layoff rights within the agency in which they held permanent status to the job classification they held immediately prior to accepting project employment.
- C. Project employees who are separated from state service due to layoff and have not held permanent status in classified service may request their names be placed into the General Government Transition Pool Program. Upon layoff from the project, project employees who entered the project through the competitive process and remain in project status for two (2) years will be eligible to have their names placed on the internal layoff list for the classes in which permanent project status was attained. Bumping options will be limited to the project boundaries.

34.18 Seasonal Career Employment

- A. Seasonal career employees have layoff rights within their agency to other seasonal career positions within their layoff unit as provided in Subsection 34.18 C below. Employees will be given no less than two (2) working days' notice of a layoff.
- B. Formal options will be determined using the procedure outlined in Section 34.9 above, to other seasonal career positions. Employees separated due to layoffs will be placed on separate seasonal layoff lists for the season in which they were laid off. Employees who have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position to be filled will be recalled based on seniority for other seasonal career positions.

- C. The layoff units for seasonal employees are as follows for each agency:
1. Department of Fish and Wildlife – A single statewide layoff unit.
 2. Department of Transportation – The county in which the seasonal employee's official duty station is located.
 3. Horse Racing Commission – A single statewide layoff unit.
 4. Parks Commission – The region in which the seasonal employee's official duty station is located.

ARTICLE 35

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Except as modified by this Agreement, the Employer retains all rights of management, which, in addition to all powers, duties and rights established by constitutional provision or statute, will include but not be limited to, the right to:

- A. Determine the Employer's functions, programs, organizational structure and use of technology;
- B. Determine the Employer's budget and size of the agency's workforce and the financial basis for layoffs;
- C. Direct and supervise employees;
- D. Take all necessary actions to carry out the mission of the state and its agencies during emergencies;

- c. The appointing authority will advance an employee who is promoted under any one or more of the following conditions to the step of the range for the new class that is nearest to a minimum of ten percent (10%) higher than the amount of the pre-promotional step. The appointing authority may authorize more than a ten percent (10%) increase, but the amount must be on a step within the salary range for the class.

- i. When the employee is promoted to a class whose base range is six (6) or more ranges higher than the base range of the employee's former class.
- ii. When the employee is promoted over an intervening class in the same class series.
- iii. When the employee is promoted from one (1) class series to a higher class in a different series and over an intervening class in the new series, which would have represented a promotion.
- iv. When an employee's promotion requires a change of residence to another geographic area to be within a reasonable commuting distance of the new place of work.

42.11 Demotion

An employee who voluntarily demotes to another position with a lower salary range maximum will be placed in the new range at a salary equal to his or her previous base salary. If the previous base salary exceeds the new range, the employee's base salary will be set equal to the new range maximum.

42.12 Transfer

A transfer is defined as an employee-initiated move of an employee from a position to another position within or between agencies in the same class or a different class with the same salary range maximum. Transferred employees will retain their current base salary.

42.13 Reassignment

Reassignment is defined as an agency-initiated move of an employee within the agency from one position to another in the same class or a different class with the same salary range maximum. Upon reassignment, an employee retains his or her current base salary.

42.14 Reversion

Reversion is defined as voluntary or involuntary movement of an employee during the trial service period to the class the employee most recently held permanent status in, to a class in the same or lower salary range, or separation placement onto the Employer's internal layoff list. Upon reversion, the base salary the employee was receiving prior to promotion will be reinstated.

42.15 Elevation

Elevation is defined as restoring an employee to the higher classification, with permanent status, which was held prior to being granted a demotion or to a class that is between the current class and the class from which the employee was demoted. Upon elevation, an employee's salary will be determined in the same manner that is provided for promotion in Section 42.10, above.

42.16 Part-Time Employment

Monthly compensation for part-time employment will be pro-rated based on the ratio of hours worked to hours required for full-time employment. In the alternative, part-time employees may be paid the appropriate hourly rate for all hours worked.

42.17 Callback

A. Work Preceding or Following a Scheduled Work Shift

Overtime-eligible shift employees will be notified prior to their scheduled quitting time either to return to work after departing the worksite or to change the starting time of their next scheduled work shift.

1. Lack of notice for such work will be considered callback and will result in a penalty of three (3) hours of pay at the basic salary in addition to all other compensation due. This penalty will apply to each call.
2. The Employer may cancel a callback notification to work extra hours at any time, but cancellation will not waive the penalty cited in this Section.

These provisions will not apply to the mid-shift interval in a split shift and an employee called back while in standby status.

B. Work on Scheduled Days Off or Holidays

The Employer may assign employees to work on a day off or holiday. Overtime-eligible employees will be notified of such assignments at least prior to the employees' normal quitting times on their second workday preceding the day off or holiday (except Sunday, when it is within the assigned work shift).

1. If the Employer does not give such notice, affected employees will receive a penalty payment of three (3) hours pay at the basic salary in addition to all other compensation due them.
2. The Employer may cancel work assigned on a day off or holiday. However, if the Employer does not notify affected employees of such cancellation at least prior to their normal quitting times on their second workday preceding the day off or holiday work assignment, affected employees will receive a penalty payment of three (3) hours pay at the basic salary.

These provisions will apply to employees on paid leave status.

C. Emergency Schedule Changes – Departments of Agriculture and Transportation

If the Employer makes an emergency schedule change as defined in Article 6, Hours of Work, the affected employee will receive a penalty payment of three (3) hours pay at the basic salary, per occurrence, in addition to all other compensation due.

42.18 Shift Premium

- A. For purposes of this Section, the following definitions apply:
 - 1. Evening shift is a work shift of eight (8) or more hours which ends at or after 10:00 p.m.
 - 2. Night shift is a work shift of eight (8) or more hours which begins by 3:00 a.m.
- B. A basic shift premium of fifty cents ($0.50) per hour will be paid to full-time employees under the following circumstances:
 - 1. Regularly scheduled evening and night shift employees are entitled to shift premium for all hours worked.
 - 2. Regularly scheduled day shift employees are not entitled to shift premium unless:
 - a. The employee's regular or temporary scheduled work shift includes hours after 6:00 p.m. and before 6:00 a.m. where no overtime, schedule change pay, or callback compensation is received. Shift premium is paid only for those hours actually worked after 6:00 p.m. and before 6:00 a.m.
 - b. The employee is temporarily assigned a full evening or night shift where no overtime, schedule change pay, or callback compensation is received. Shift premium is paid only for all evening or night shift hours worked in this circumstance.
 - 3. Employees regularly scheduled to work at least one (1), but not all, evening and/or night shifts are entitled to shift premium for those shifts. Additionally, these employees are entitled to shift premium for all hours adjoining that evening or night shift which are worked.
- C. Part-time and on-call employees will be entitled to basic shift premium under the following circumstances:
 - 1. For all assigned hours of work after 6:00 p.m. and before 6:00 a.m.
 - 2. For assigned full evening or night shifts, as defined in Subsection B.2, above.
- D. In cases where shift premium hours are regularly scheduled over a year, agencies may pay shift premium at a monthly rate that is equal for all months of the year. Monthly rates will be calculated by dividing twelve (12) into the amount of shift premium an employee would earn in a year if the hourly rules in Subsection B.2 were applied.

- E. When an employee is compensated for working overtime during hours for which shift premium is authorized in this Section, the overtime rate will be calculated using the “regular rate.”
- F. Employees eligible for shift premium for their regularly scheduled shifts will receive the same proportion of shift premium for respective periods of authorized paid leave and for holidays not worked which fall within their regularly scheduled shift.

42.19 Shift Premium for Registered Nurses and Related Classes

Registered Nurses 1 through 4 and related job classes requiring licensure as a registered nurse, Licensed Practical Nurses 1 through 3, Mental Health Licensed Practical Nurses 2 through 4, and Psychiatric Security Nurse will receive one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per hour shift differential for evening shift and night shift work.

42.20 Supplemental Shift Premium for Nurses

For the classes of Registered Nurse 1 through 4 and related job classes requiring licensure as a registered nurse, supplemental shift premium will be paid in the amounts and under the conditions described below. Employees may qualify for one (1) or both of these supplemental shift premiums.

- A. One dollar ($1.00) per hour during any hours assigned to work or while on paid leave from 11:00 p.m. until 7:00 a.m.
- B. Three dollars ($3.00) per hour during any hours worked or while on paid leave from Friday midnight to Sunday midnight.
- C. Supplemental shift premiums are payable regardless of employment status and/or whether the work was prescheduled.
- D. Supplemental shift premiums are not payable during hours other than those specified.

42.21 Split Shift

When an employee’s assigned work shift is split with a minimum of four (4) intervening hours not worked, the employee, except for registered nurses and related classes, will receive the shift premium rate designated in Subsection 42.18 B for all hours worked. Registered nurses and related classes will receive the premium rate set forth in Section 42.19 for all hours worked. The provisions of Subsections 42.18 D, E and F will apply to employees working split shifts.

42.22 Standby

- A. An overtime-eligible employee is in standby status while waiting to be engaged to work by the Employer and both of the following conditions exist:

1. The employee is required to be present at a specified location or is immediately available to be contacted. The location may be the employee's home or other specific location, but not a work site away from home. When the standby location is the employee's home, and the home is on the same state property where the employee works, the home is not considered a work site.
 2. The agency requires the employee to be prepared to report immediately for work if the need arises, although the need might not arise.
- B. Standby status will not be concurrent with work time.
- C. When the nature of a work assignment confines an employee during off-duty hours and that confinement is a normal condition of work in the employee's position, standby compensation is not required merely because the employee is confined.
- D. Employees on standby status will be compensated at a rate of seven percent (7%) of their hourly base salary for time spent in standby status.
- E. Employees dispatched to emergency fire duty as defined by RCW 38.52.010 are not eligible for standby pay.

42.23 Relocation Compensation

- A. The Employer may authorize lump sum relocation compensation, within existing budgetary resources, under the following conditions:
1. When it is reasonably necessary that a person make a domiciliary move in accepting a reassignment or appointment; or
 2. When it is necessary to successfully recruit or retain a qualified candidate or employee who will have to make a domiciliary move in order to accept the position.
- B. If the employee receiving the relocation payment terminates or causes termination of his or her employment with the state within one (1) year of the date of employment, the state will be entitled to reimbursement for the moving costs which have been paid and may withhold such sum as necessary from any amounts due the employee. Termination as a result of layoff or disability separation will not require the employee to repay the relocation compensation.

42.24 Salary Overpayment Recovery

- A. When an agency has determined that an employee has been overpaid wages, the agency will provide written notice to the employee which will include the following items:

1. The amount of the overpayment,
2. The basis for the claim, and
3. The rights of the employee under the terms of this Agreement.

B. Method of Payback

The employee has the following options for paying back the overpayment:

1. Voluntary wage deduction
2. Cash
3. Check

The employee will have the option to repay the overpayment over a period of time equal to the number of pay periods during which the overpayment was made, unless a longer period is agreed to by the employee and the agency.

C. Appeal Rights

Any dispute concerning the occurrence or amount of the overpayment will be resolved through the grievance procedure in Article 29 of this Agreement.

42.25 Assignment Pay Provisions

Assignment pay is a premium added to the base salary and is intended to be used only as long as the skills, duties, or circumstances it is based on are in effect.

- A. The Employer may grant assignment pay to a position to recognize specialized skills, assigned duties, and/or unique circumstances that exceed the ordinary. The Employer determines which positions qualify for the premium.
- B. Classes approved for assignment pay have the letters “AP” appearing after their class title in the compensation plan. All Assignment Pay rates and Special Pay Ranges and Notes are attached as Appendices K and L to this Agreement.

42.26 Dependent Care Salary Reduction Plan

The Employer agrees to maintain the current dependent care salary reduction plan that allows eligible employees, covered by this Agreement, the option to participate in a dependent care reimbursement program for work-related dependent care expenses on a pretax basis as permitted by Federal tax law or regulation.

42.27 Pretax Health Care Premiums

The Employer agrees to provide eligible employees with the option to pay the employee portion of health premiums on a pre-tax basis as permitted by federal tax law or regulation.

42.28 Medical/Dental Expense Account

Effective January 2006, the Employer agrees to allow insurance eligible employees, covered by the Agreement, to participate in a medical and dental expense reimbursement program to cover co-payments, deductibles and other medical and dental expenses, if employees have such costs, or expenses for services not covered by health or dental insurance on a pre-tax basis as permitted by federal tax law or regulation.

42.29 Fire Duty Compensation: Department of Corrections (DOC) and Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)

DOC and DSHS employees sent to forest fire camps in charge of inmate or resident fire fighters for a period of twenty-four (24) hours or more will be on "extended duty assignment." Employees on extended duty assignment will be considered to be on continuous duty from the time they commence such duty, including travel time to the fire, until they are released from duty, including travel time for return to their non-fire duty station.

- A. During the extended duty assignment, all time will be paid as work time, except that the Employer may deduct up to eight (8) hours of non-work time each day for sleep, plus up to three (3) hours for meals, provided that:
 - 1. The employee has no responsibility during time deducted for meal periods.
 - 2. The time deducted for sleep includes a period of five (5) continuous hours which are not interrupted by a call to work.
- B. Employees will not be entitled to receive callback pay for any work performed during the hours of an extended duty assignment or the transition back to their regular work schedule.
- C. While on extended duty assignment, the employee's workweek will remain the same. However, an employee's assigned work hours while on extended duty assignment may be different from his or her regularly assigned work hours. Work schedules for employees on extended duty assignment will be determined after camp has been set up.
- D. If an employee is directed to perform duties which extend beyond his or her assigned work hours, as determined in Subsection C above, he or she will be compensated at the overtime rate. If an employee is directed to return to duty without having had five (5) continuous hours off duty, the employee will be compensated at the overtime rate for all off-duty hours, in addition to the number of hours worked, until he or she is relieved from duty for five (5) consecutive hours. If an employee is directed to return to work after being off duty for five (5) consecutive hours but prior to his or her assigned shift, he or she will be compensated at the overtime rate for actual hours worked during the off-duty hours.

- E. There is no eligibility for standby pay during an extended duty assignment.
- F. Employees whose regular work schedule entitles them to shift premium will be paid shift premium while on extended duty assignment.

42.30 Fire Duty Compensation – Department of Natural Resources (DNR)

A. Compensation for Typical Fire Suppression Duties:

DNR employees performing fire suppression duties or other emergency duties when they are working under the incident command system will be compensated as follows:

1. While performing emergency work under the incident command system, an employee's work is not exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act. Emergency work performed under the incident command system will be compensated in compliance with federal law and the terms of this Article.
2. For those hours worked under the incident command system, one dollar ($1.00)* is added to an employee's regular rate in lieu of any other forms of additional compensation including, but not limited to, callback, standby, stand down, shift differential, split shift differential, assignment pay, schedule change, and pay for rest periods of less than five (5) hours.
3. Employees will be paid at one and one-half (1 ½) times the sum of their regular hourly rate plus one dollar ($1.00)* for those hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek as a result of wild fire suppression and/or other emergency duties performed under the incident command system. For purposes of this Subsection, the regular hourly rate does not include any allowable exclusions as specified in Subsection 7.1 D of Article 7, Overtime.

*Note: If any other labor organization negotiates an amount greater than one dollar ($1.00), then this amount will be increased to equal the greater amount.

B. Compensation When Deployed to a Spike Camp:

1. When deployed to a spike camp, employees will be considered on twenty-four (24)-hour duty. Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), bona fide meal periods and a bona fide scheduled sleeping period of up to eight (8) hours are excluded from paid time, provided adequate sleeping facilities are furnished and the uninterrupted sleep period is at least five (5) hours.
2. When an employee is deployed by incident command staff to a spike camp, the spike camp is a closed satellite camp with limited and variable support facilities, but provides, at a minimum, hot meals and adequate sleeping facilities.

- C. Compensation for Coyote Status:
When deployed to coyote status, employees will be considered in twenty-four (24)-hour pay status and paid accordingly without excluding bona fide meal periods or sleep periods. An employee is in coyote status when deployed by incident command staff, required to remain in remote and primitive conditions near the fire-line, and unable to return to any base or spike camp at the end of the work shift.
- D. "Wild Fire Suppression and Other Emergency Duties," attached as Appendix M, provides direction on the non-compensation elements of fire duty.

42.31 Spill Response Team – Department of Ecology

- A. In addition to the compensation described in Article 7, Overtime, employees on spill response duty will be compensated as follows:
 - 1. Employees will be in only one (1) pay status at a time. Employees cannot accrue standby pay and pay for time worked.
 - 2. Standby pay will be provided to employees required to be on standby status for purposes of spill response. Employees will be compensated for standby in accordance with Section 42.22 above, for all hours in standby status.
- B. Employees responding to a spill will be paid at a rate of one and one-half (1-1/2) times the employee's hourly salary (including the assignment pay) for time worked outside their normal work hours. "Responding to a spill" includes receiving phone calls and any required follow-up activities, field response, and any other activities as identified in the Spill Response Operations Manual.
- C. Employees permanently assigned to the Emergency Spill Response Team (full-time responders) will receive assignment pay per Section 42.25, above. Employees not permanently assigned to the Emergency Response Team (after-hours responders) but who are designated by the Spill Response Section Manager as spill responders eligible for assignment pay, will receive three hundred dollars ($300) for each assigned week of duty. When the assigned week of duty is performed by two (2) or more responders, the three hundred dollars ($300) assignment pay will be apportioned to the responders as described in the Spill Response Operations Manual.

SPECIAL PAY RANGES AND NOTES

These ranges are used to equal or approximate prevailing rate practices found in private industry or other governmental units. An affected class is identified by a letter designation following the basic salary range number or by a letter designation preceding a number. In the latter case, a special salary schedule will be used for such classes.

“E” RANGE: This range is used for classes having a prevailing pay range that is shorter than a standard range. An “E” range is a standard range with the first four (4) steps removed. The first step is the same as Step E of the standard range having the same range number. Periodic increases are made at the same intervals as through standard ranges.

“D” RANGE: This range is a single rate per hour equivalent to the State's minimum wage. It is payable to employees who have dog handler assignments, and only while they are off duty, but are still required to care for the dog in their charge. Work time to be paid at "D" range includes but is not limited to time required for daily feeding, exercising, grooming, and emergency health care of the dog, and care and cleaning of the kennel.

“T” RANGE: This range is ten (10) ranges higher than the range approved for Lottery District Sales Representative and it may be applied only to those classifications. Use of this range is limited to sales incentive programs which: (a) may not exceed thirteen (13) weeks for any program; (b) may not exceed four (4) programs in any consecutive twelve (12) months; (c) require achievement of specific goals which are set for each program by the lottery, such goals to be in excess of normal performance standards for the class.

The Lottery is authorized to compensate individual employees on the “T” range for not more than three (3) months as a result of any one (1) sales incentive program, with the number of months stipulated in the incentive program announcement. Within these limits, movement of any employee to and from the “T” range will be at the discretion of the Lottery, and shall be from and to the same step, subject to change by the employee’s periodic increment date.

“J” RANGE: This range is a single rate per hour equivalent to range 62, step K. Use is limited to Lottery employees who volunteer and are selected for lottery drawing duty as one (1) of the following: (a) The Lottery Drawing Official (LDO); (b) the Lottery Security Official (LSO); or (c) the Headquarters Drawing Official (HDO), as described under Lottery procedures.

Employees performing these functions during their normal working shift will not be eligible for “J” range compensation. Employees performing these functions outside of their shift will be compensated by the “J” rate on an hourly basis with a two (2)-hour minimum per drawing period.

APPENDIX M

WILD FIRE SUPPRESSION AND OTHER EMERGENCY DUTIES

Fire Duty Compensation – Department of Natural Resources (DNR)

The provisions of this Appendix apply to DNR employees when performing wild fire suppression or other emergency duties under the incident command system.

Fire Season Work Schedules

While the state's fire season is in effect, work schedules for wild fire suppression personnel may be assigned that are other than Monday through Friday and 8:00 am to 4:30 pm. Such fire season schedules will provide for equitable rotation if requested by a majority of the affected employees.

For those employees whose permanent or temporary duty station is a correctional facility, DNR will establish by April 15 each year a priority list for assigning overtime when assignments are not determined by closest forces. Employees may request to drop to the bottom of such priority list for a specified length of time with reasonable notice to their first-line management supervisor. The priority list will be posted in a place visible to employees.

Rotational Fire Duty Standby

While the state's fire season is in effect, separate rotational standby schedules may be established for the incident command system positions of Division Supervisor, Task Force Leader, and Resource Boss. If established, the rotational schedules would be posted in region and division offices and updated weekly. Actual rotation would not begin or continue except as authorized by the Employer. The Employer will make pagers or similar communication devices available to employees if on rotational standby for deployment as a Division Supervisor, Task Force Leader, or Resource Boss.

Agreement Applies to All Deployments

- A. Wild fire suppression working conditions as specified in this Agreement are considered usual and customary in any wild fire suppression operation to which the Employer has deployed employees.
- B. On interagency fires, DNR will designate a knowledgeable agency representative or contact to ensure compliance with provisions of this Agreement.

Length of Deployment

- A. The Employer retains sole authority to dispatch employees to fires even when dispatched to inter-agency fires.
- B. If not released from wild fire suppression duty by the tenth (10th) consecutive day following deployment away from their duty station, employees will be scheduled for rest and recuperation and will be unavailable for work assignments for twenty-four (24) hours. The rest and recuperation period is intended to occur no later than the fourteenth (14th) consecutive calendar day. Up to forty-eight (48) hours of travel to and up to forty-eight (48) hours of travel from the fire incident are excluded in calculating ten (10) consecutive days. During a rest and recuperation period, the employee will be paid eight (8) hours miscellaneous leave (ten (10) hours miscellaneous leave for an employee on a 4-10 schedule). Rest and recuperation leave is paid at the employee's straight time hourly rate.

- C. When a rest and recuperation period as discussed above does not occur because of scheduling considerations before release from fire suppression duty away from an employee's duty station, the employee will take rest and recuperation miscellaneous leave on the first calendar day after returning from fire duty to the employee's regular duty station.
- D. Deployment beyond fourteen (14) consecutive days requires mutual agreement of the employee's Region/Division Manager, the DNR Resource Protection Division Manager, and the employee. Approval to extend fire duty deployment beyond fourteen (14) consecutive calendar days will include provision for scheduling a rest and recuperation period if not already taken at the earliest opportunity consistent with safety and scheduling considerations.

Normal Rest Periods

When an employee is deployed under the incident command system to wild fire suppression duty, it is normally appropriate to grant a reasonable rest period after twelve (12) hours of fire line duty. Except when precluded by extraordinary circumstances, a rest period is eight (8) or more continuous duty/travel-free hours.

Fit for Duty

As in all other instances, employees while deployed to wild fire suppression and/or other emergency duty under the incident command system are responsible within their means to be physically able to resume their duties at the start of each work shift.

Fire Camp

- A. DNR employees are not required to remain in wild fire base camp during off duty hours.
- B. When a wild fire suppression base camp is established for overnight operation and one-way travel to the nearest community does not unreasonably exceed one (1) hour, the Employer will, except when precluded by extraordinary circumstances, provide for round trip transportation to the nearest community for employees who are off duty.

Laundry Services

After five (5) consecutive calendar days away from their duty station, employees deployed to emergency duty under the incident command system will be entitled to laundry services until released from emergency duty. If contracted laundry services are not provided, employees will be reimbursed for laundry costs incurred pursuant to Office of Financial Management, State Administrative and Accounting Manual, Sub-section 10.60.10.

Return to Normal Duties

- A. Upon return to normal duties following release from extended emergency duty under the incident command system, the Employer will provide work for an employee during regular scheduled hours if there is work that the employee can perform safely and productively. If in the immediate supervisor's judgment, there is not work that the employee can safely and productively perform, the immediate supervisor will direct the employee to go off duty and will notify the employee when scheduled to return to duty. If an employee is directed to rest at the duty station, the directed rest time at the duty station is duty time.
- B. If an employee returning from extended emergency duty under the incident command system is directed to go off duty or desires to go off duty, the employee may request to be allowed to delay the start of his or her normal schedule of regular hours and to make up regular shift hours during the remainder of the workday or during the remainder of the workweek without incurring overtime. The Employer will within reason approve such employee requests. The Union acknowledges there may be circumstances that preclude approving a request. When regular hours are made up during the remainder of the workday or during the remainder of the workweek, the regular hours are paid at the straight time rate. If an employee returning from extended emergency duty under the incident command system requests to use accrued vacation leave, the Employer will within reason approve the employee request.

Meals

- A. When fire safety requires an employee to remain at a fire site for a period which extends three (3) or more hours beyond his or her normal eight (8) hour work shift, the employee is entitled to a nutritious meal and to an additional meal for every four (4) hours of continuous work thereafter.
- B. In emergency situations, on short notice, when an employee is required to report for duty three (3) or more hours prior to his or her normal workshift, the employee is entitled to a nutritious meal.
- C. Meal delivery requirements may be flexible to facilitate a hot or a better quality meal at a camp or restaurant (in lieu of a cold lunch) at the option of a majority of the employees involved.

Sleeping Bags

On a project fire, each employee who remains at the site will be provided a sleeping bag and a sleeping pad of good quality.

Inclement Weather Facilities

On a project fire during inclement weather, reasonably warm and dry facilities will be provided as soon as possible for eating and sleeping.

Shower Facilities

On a project fire, shower facilities including soap will be made available as soon as possible except when precluded by extraordinary circumstances.
